Presbyterian Church Scene of Ceremony

Judith Ann Stock became the bride of Robert B. Seghi on May 20 at the First Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Elickey performed the ceremony at 7:30 o'clock.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mrs. Jean Stock of S. Bates Street and Mr. and Mrs. Gelle Seghi of Ferndale.

THE BRIDE WORE an embroidered chantilly lace gown designed with a basque bodice, long tapering sleeves and sweeping skirt. A pearl crown secured her tiered shoulder length veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade of white gladioli, pink rosebuds and trailing ivy. She was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Wilford Payne.

Serving as maid of honor was Jo Ann Payne and bridesmaids were Sandra Seghi, Mary Kamin and Carol Pedersen. They appeared in pink silk organza gowns with black details of embroidered roses. Pink petals secured their circular veils. They carried baskets of pink and blue painted daisies.

MRS. ROBERT SEGHI

rie Beth Payne, daughter of the Wilford Paynes.

Mother of the bride selected a gown of delphinium lace and chiffon with pink rhubarb orchids.

Mother of the bridegroom chose a beige and lace chiffon dress with matching accessories. Her flowers were yellow rhubarb orchids.

The bride chose a white wool costume suit for her going away outfit. They are honeymooning in Northern Michigan.
