International Attention

Birmingham's school system received international attention last week when Vidya Shulka, a member of the Indian Parliament, visited Birmingham during his tour of the U. S. Discussing the facilities of Groves High School are (from left) Shulka, James Burchyett, Groves principal, Ronald Rolph, director of attendance, and Walter R. Denison, Birmingham Plan Board member. Shulka was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Denison, 30551 Marimoor, Beverly Hills, during his four-day stay.

BEN D. MILLS

Ben Mills Honored With Law Degree

Ben D. Mills, 780 Vaughan, Bloomfield Hills, a vice president of Ford Motor Co., received the honorary degree of doctor of laws from Southeastern University, Washington, D.C., Wednesday.

An alumnus of Southeastern University's School of Law, Mills was presented for his degree by the Honorable Robert S. McNamara, Secretary of Defense, University President Dr. Leroy J. Mass conferred the degree.

The university annually recognizes outstanding alumni and leaders in American life with the award of an honorary doctorate.

MILLS IS GENERAL manager of the Lincoln-Mercury Division of Ford Motor and directs the marketing of the Comet, Mercury and Lincoln Continental car lines. As a result of distinguished service with the U.S. Army Air Force during World War II, he attained the rank of major and was awarded The Bronze Star.

Thompson Named Troy Rotary Head

George H. Thompson, a Troy dentist, has been named president of the Troy Rotary Club. He will be installed June 10 at the Sylvan Glen Golf Club in Troy.

Thompson succeeds Boyd Larson, assistant superintendent of the Troy School District.

Other officers are Roy W. Bemis, first vice president; Harold Beaver, second vice president; Phillip Comins, secretary; and Roudolph C. Smith, treasurer.
