Farewell Party Honors Long-Time Resident

WALNUT LAKE — Mrs. John W. Smith of Putnam Drive entertained recently at a farewell party for Mrs. Raymond Embach. The Embachs have been Putnam Drive residents for years and are moving to Dearborn Township.

There were 14 guests present besides the hostess and the guest of honor. Mrs. Embach was presented with gifts as a remembrance token.

The guest list included Mrs. James Sanborn, Mrs. A. G. Offenstein, Mrs. C. E. Morrow, Mrs. Jack Bell, Mrs. Roy Edgar, Mrs. H. Heinman, Mrs. Lester Johns, Mrs. Paul Dahl, Mrs. George Machek. Others were Mrs. Anthony Kirpuk, Mrs. Bernadine Phillips, Mrs. E. Speicher, Mrs. N. Greenleaf and Mrs. Henry Jokela.

More than 26,000 people crowded their way into Walled Lake Senior High School over the May 27-28 week-end to see the Ottawa District Scout-O-Rama.

An enormous job was accepted by Troop 41 of Walnut Lake and they did a job to be proud of. They printed the official newspaper, distributing 6,000 copies to the visitors.

Art Brooks, cub master of Pack 41, Ottawa district, felt real pride when his Cub Scout division won third place. They received the honor for an electric sign board which they erected. The board was made on the principle of a quiz game, matching questions and answers.

Martha Du Val of Walnut Lake Troop 360, was in charge of planning for approximately 250 Senior Scouts of Southern Oakland council who met at Southfield, Mich. May 27 in time to share lunch. They shared activities in conjunction with Michigan Week honoring youth day.

Each troop planned a different part of the entertainment. There were games about "facts about Michigan," folk tales and songs about Michigan.

There were educational projects showing how to prepare for emergencies in Michigan such as tornadoes. A Marine troop displayed ways for safety in Michigan's Water Wonderland.

BRASES — Mr. and Mrs. Glen Paulsen of Eastmoor Drive had a perfect addition to their holiday week end. Spending the long week end with the Paulsens were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Paulsen from Milwaukee, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eisen of Eastmoor Drive took advantage of the long weekend and the nice weather and made a beeline for the north woods. They have a cottage near Cheboygan which always proves to be a grand hideaway for busy suburbanites. Their young son Bobby went along to check and see if any new wild "anna-mies" had been added to the frequent visitors on the Eisen property.

The home of the James I. Bernardini will be bulging for a week beginning on June 12. Mrs. Bernardini's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Andre and her brother George Andre and his family are coming from Cincinnati. They are bringing Scott, 2½ and Brad 2 months.

Intermission Conference

Mrs. John Kessler, 6660 W. Dartmoor, West Bloomfield Township, a parishioner of Holy Name Church in Birmingham, discusses plans of the newly formed National Association of Ladies of Charity during its first annual meeting in St. Louis, Mo. Mrs. Kessler is national chairman of the association's budget committee. With Mrs. Kessler are the Most Rev. Leo C. Byrne (left), coadjutor bishop of Wichita, Kan., who is serving as Episcopal chairman of the association, and the Rt. Rev. Raymond J. Gallagher, executive secretary of the National Conference of Catholic Charities, who has been appointed spiritual director of the group.
