

June Brides Speak Vows

MRS. SIEGFRIED LAHM

MRS. WILLIAM CARSON JR.

Kirk in the Hills was the scene Sunday for the marriage of Susan Ellen Voorhees to Siegfried Lahm. The Rev. Harold C. DeWindt performed the 4 o'clock ceremony in the presence of 150 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Voorhees of Bennington Drive, Bloomfield Hills. Her husband is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Karl Lahm of Mansfield, Ohio.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, Susan wore a gown of silk organza over taffeta featuring a basque waist marked by butterfly bustle low at the back, short sleeves and a fitted bodice trimmed with chantilly lace and pearls.

A crown of pearl blossoms secured the bouffant veil of imported illusion. She carried a bouquet of white roses, stephanotis, and English ivy with a detachable green orchid in the center.

HANNAH HOLIDAY of Detroit served as honor attendant. She wore a lavender silk organza dress with a plated overskirt in back and matching shoes. Her headress was an English ivy wreath and she carried a bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and pink rosebuds.

Bridesmaids were Joan Lahm of Mansfield, Ohio, and Barbara Breien of Carriage Road, Birmingham. They appeared in moss green silk organza dresses and carried white stephanotis with pink rosebuds.

JACK GUGOTOS of Mansfield, Ohio, stood as best man. Seating the guests were William Stockler, George Fisher, William Frantz, Paul Lingle and Robert Johnson.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Voorhees chose a silk dress of chantilly lace over bridesweet pink silk with matching accessories and a corsage of off-white orchids. Mother of the bridegroom selected a gray silk dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

FOLLOWING the double ring ceremony, guests were greeted at the home of the bride's parents.

The new Mrs. Lahm wore a black and white knob suit with a red straw hat to start her wedding trip to Mackinac Island. Upon return, the couple will live in Springfield, Ohio.

Gowned in silk organza, Judith vonRosen became the bride of William David Carson Jr., Saturday noon at the First Baptist Church in Birmingham. Dr. Homer Armstrong performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. vonRosen of Linden Road, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. David Carson of Muncie, Ind.

THE BRIDE'S gown was designed with a scoop neckline, fitted bodice with appliques of alencon lace and the skirt was full draped bell-shaped with a chapel length train.

A tiara of pearls and tiny blossoms secured her shoulder length veil of French silk illusion. A bouquet of white roses and green ivy centered with white orchids completed the bridal picture.

MARGARET ANN vonRosen, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mary Abigail Sweeney, Alice Anne Hardison and Katherine Carson, sister of the bridegroom.

They wore maize nylon sheer dresses featuring three-quarter length sleeves, scoop necklines and empire bodices. Their headresses were the same fabric as their dresses. Attendants carried lace parasols with white geraniums and ivy spiked with violets spilling from the parasols.

CHARLES Converse Carson, brother of the bridegroom, stood as best man. Seating the guests were Ronald R. Huffman, David Ransburg, John E. vonRosen and Frederic W. vonRosen, brothers of the bride.

Mrs. vonRosen selected a silk chiffon dress with violet accessories and a white orchid for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Carson chose a powder blue linen sheath with navy accessories and white orchids.

FOLLOWING the noon ceremony, guests were greeted at the home of the bride's parents for a reception.

For traveling, the bride chose a heavy ribbed cotton dress with matching jacket in bone and beige. They are honeymooning in Maine. Upon return, they will live in Owego, N. Y.

Mischa Kottler To Open Cranbrook Summer Festival

MSUO Scholarship Fund to Benefit From Horse Show

The scholarship fund of Michigan State University Oakland will share in the proceeds of the Detroit Horse Show to be held at Bloomfield Open Hunt June 20 through June 25.

The ladies of the MSUO foundation scholarship committee, headed by Mrs. Maxwell Matthews, 1027 Kirkway Drive, Bloomfield Hills, are handling advance ticket sales and will have MSUO students man the gates and parking lots.

THE COMMITTEE is backing up Chancellor D. B. Varner's pledge that no top-quarter high school graduate in this area will be denied the opportunity to go to college for lack of money.

The ticket committee includes Mrs. L. L. Colbert, Mrs. John Shensfield, Mrs. S. D. Steiner, Mrs. Marilyn Simmes, Mrs. George Huebner and Mrs. Maxwell Matthews.

Failure to protect your home, for example, against the attacks of the weather, results in its deterioration, its rusting and its rotting. Then, some day, the roof will fall in, the walls open and crumble—and no longer will it be a safe and comfortable shelter. This same deterioration condition can attack a nation's liberties and security. It happens when citizens cease to respond to their bounden duties.

Ball Gets Festival Rolling

Getting ready to open the Birmingham Arts Festival with a gay evening of dining and dancing are the guests who have reserved places at the annual ball.

Among those who will be spending "A Night with the Gods (and Goddesses)" at the festival tomorrow at Bloomfield Hills Country Club are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vanderkloot and Mr. and Mrs. George Russell (the wives are co-chairmen of this year's event).

Other guests include the Walter C. Laidlaws, the Harold Tanners, the D. P. Brothers and the Edward S. Wellocks. The R. Jamison Williams, the George O. Cutters, Dr. and Mrs. Herman Scarney and Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Ahrens will also be celebrating the festival's opening.

Shall We Dance?

If the stars are propitious, couples will have an opportunity to dance under the stars on the Little Club's newly enlarged outdoor dancing area overlooking Lake St. Clair... an ideal setting for a Navy ball. Mrs. John LeFrakas of Birmingham, president of the Detroit Women's Council of the Navy League, and her committee have chosen "Wings of Gold" as the theme for this year's Navy League Ball. To be held June 27 at the Little Club in Grosse Pointe. The theme is in honor of the 50th anniversary of the Navy Air Force branch of the USN.

THE BALL committee, headed by Mrs. Frank Nair with Mrs. C. A. Dean Jr. and Mrs. E. Coplin as co-chairmen, are hoping for ideal weather. The party will begin with cocktails and a reception, starting at 7 p.m., followed by dinner and then dancing. Also attending from this area will be Commander and Mrs. D. W. Zimmer of Middlebury Lane, Birmingham.

The ball, an annual affair, sponsored by the Detroit Women's Council of the Navy League, is the only fundraising project of the Council. The money raised at the ball is earmarked for many Navy activities, including scholarships for the children of the submarine force and children's library at Grosse Ile Naval base.

Bon Voyage

A Bon Voyage party was given recently in honor of Mrs. F. E. Ostrow and daughter Margaret of S. Glenary Road, Birmingham.
