White Batiste Oxford
At last! A really lightweight white dress shirt that you can't see through! The fabric is Hathaway's remarkable new Batiste Oxford. Wonderful stuff. Looks just like regular Oxford, but is half the weight. Amazingly cool. Immaculately tailored by Hathaway with single-needle stitching.

North Adams Neighbors Bid Goodbye to Vincents

NORTH ADAMS — The Richard Vincents of Robinhood Circle will be entertaining a farewell dinner Saturday for the Los Vincents of Cincinnati. The Vincents will be moving to Nassau in the Bahama Islands this summer where they will make their home.

Guests joining in the farewell celebration will be the Robert Hills, the Chas. Sharps, the Richard Adams, the Charles Ebers, the Joseph Hainlines of Birmingham, the Paul Hodges of Ann Arbor.

A League of Women Voters luncheon and board meeting was held last Monday at the home of Mrs. William Gordon on Robinhood Circle. Among the 22 guests attending were President Mrs. George Hillinger, vice president, Mrs. Garvin Bowden; former president and present chairman of the Cot Can committee, Mrs. Brooks Marshall; Mrs. George Talburt; Mrs. Lee Spannair; Mrs. George Bliss; Mrs. James Fleming; Mrs. Walter Ebers; Mrs. William Shaw, all of the Birmingham - Bloomfield area.

The William Gordons will be entertaining on their new terrace overlooking the Rouge River on Saturday in celebration of the National Open Golf Tournament at Oakland Hills Country Club. Among their 24 dinner guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Edward Weinfurter, Mr. and Mrs. William Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kirkpatrick of Birmingham.

The William Heustons of Ansel Lane journeyed to Princeton University where Heaton attended the 19th reunion with classmates on Saturday. Another stop during their 10-day vacation was made at Greenwich, Conn. to visit relatives, the Jack Heustons.

Mrs. James Herbst and sons, Jim and John, of Rock Spring Drive will be traveling to Springfield, Ohio, this weekend to join in the birthday celebration of grandmother, Mrs. David Herr who will be 97 years young.

The Harry Stewart family of Robinhood Road is looking forward to a long, hot summer so they can enjoy life around their new pool. They had their 20x10 pool installed in October and were taking their first quick dips during the chilly month of May.

The Robert Wasons of Lanegan Drive are another family looking forward to swimming in their own back yard this summer. They are presently in the process of installing a pool.

The Jack Smiths of Kent Road entertained Smith's parents, the Louis F. Smiths of Cincinnati for five days last week.

On the homestead arriving last weekend for a week's visit with the Smiths were Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Gates of Cincinnati, Mrs. Smith's parents.

On their summer agenda, is a planned visit for two weeks from their 11-year-old niece, Linda Esterkamp of Cincinnati, before journeying back to Cincinnati to join other members and their families, and the Bruce Wiens of Los Angeles for a family reunion.

Blacks, the Jack Yansons. Others recently. Bringing "specialty of the house" dishes were the William Caraway, the Frank Watts, the Gordon McGowan, the Wally McGowan, the William Rice, the Al Points.
