Coed Arrives Home With String of Honors

BIRMINGHAM FARMS — Mr. and Mrs. Robert Endres of Sandwood Drive welcomed their daughter Elaine home for the summer. Elaine attends Harding College in Searcy, Ark., where she is a drama major.

Elaine is sorority president of Kappa Delta; is the sophomore representative to the student council; officer of the campus players' group; writer for the school paper and is on the year book staff.

She also received an award for "outstanding actress" and has won superior rating in monologues and scenes division of the annual artists tournament.

Mrs. Robert Endres and Mrs. Walter Hicks co-hosted a "coffee" recently at the Hicks home on Sandwood Drive to introduce three new Sandwood neighbors to the neighboring women. Guests were Mrs. Joseph Konopka, Mrs. Syd Griffin and Mrs. Peter Andrys.

The Greater Westchester Village Association met recently at the Community House.

Arno L. Hulst, township supervisor; Karl Rhoades, township building inspector and Donald Ha-way from the Oakland County Road Commission spoke to the group on current problems.

WESTCHESTER — On June 7 Mrs. Raymond N. Reid of Farrington Drive, was installed as president of Cornwall Club of Royal Oak. The installation took place at the home of Mrs. Robert J. Shebal of Potawatomi Drive in Royal Oak.

June 12 was the day when future plans were made by the Westchester Women's Club. Mrs. George Fulgerson, new club president entertained her new executive board for brunch and their first meeting.

Leaving for Europe

A student at Kingswood, Kathleen Mansfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mansfield of Yarbrough Road, Bloomfield Hills, is leaving for Europe Sunday. She will visit 15 countries during her 15 week stay.

Fashion Show Helps To Build AFS Fund

Proceeds from the annual fashion show presented recently by the Junior class of Kingswood School in Cranbrook will help to bring an American Field Service student to Kingswood next September.

Sonia Salazar of Ecuador will attend the girls' preparatory school for the 1961-62 school year. Students and faculty attended the fashion show which had a theme of "Where the Girls Are." All the models selected their own most becoming clothes to wear.
