B'field Hills Jr. High Honors, Awards Given At Special Assembly

By LEE MARSHALL AND JUDY RASKIN
 Special Writers

The annual honors and awards assembly at B'field Hills Junior High School was held on Monday, June 5. This is where students come dressed in everything but their regular clothes.

Bonnie Byrnes, dressed as a Martian, won the originality prize, and a package of cigars; Bill Bachman walked away with other prizes.

Next on the agenda, Judy Raskin explained the honor point system. The seventh and eighth grade bronze "B's" were then given out by Mrs. Allhouse, their counselor, and Jane Heagins gave an appropriate speech.

For the seventh grade response, Cheryl Marsh recited the poem "Success." Marguerite then introduced Nancy Pittaly who gave encouragement to those receiving their silver "B's." Miss Sitarist presented these awards and Marvin Booth responded by playing a piano selection.

The program moved quickly to Jill Wahl who congratulated the ninth graders upon receiving their gold "B's." Mr. Vartanian, the ninth grade counselor made the presentations.

A chorus made up of Gave Vander Meer, Jo Morrison, Marguerite Hyde and Jill Wahl sang.

Next came the presentation of the "Shoe Award." This tradition, started two years ago by the ninth graders, is to name the outstanding boy or girl of the ninth grade class on the basis of scholarship, citizenship, taking part in school activities, cooperation and personality.

Jill Wahl and Dan Mautte were the lucky ones who received the award from principal Mr. McGuire. Kim Kelso then installed the new student council president, Greg Pike.

Students Honored At S'field High

"Surprise" scholarships were awarded to 11 Southfield High seniors June 5 at the annual "Swing-out" assembly.

Four Jessie Davenport teacher training scholarships of $200 each were awarded by the Southfield PTA Council to Marilyn Colombo, Shirley McQuady, Kathy Ferguson and Freya Figas. Another $200 teacher training scholarship, sponsored by the Southfield Education Association, was given to Karen Mitty.

The Southfield Business and Professional Women's Club scholarship of $200 was presented to Sharon Purdy.

SCHOOL-SPONSORED scholarships were the student council award given to George Wright; the Yarsity Club scholarship to George Kopek and Hubert Winklebauer; and the sound and stage crew award, given to Harvey Sweet and Dennis MacPetrie.

Nine other seniors were given certificates for "all-A's" records in various fields of study. They were Jo Berner, Freya Figas, Paolo Kuitavara, Mary Ellen Tucker, Isabelle Owen, Sharon Purdy, Louis Slat, Pat Rutledge, and Catherine Zatsick.
