USE SCOTTS TURF BUILDER FOR GREENER LAWNS — FROM FAWCETT'S HARDWARE

Surprising, because instead of two jobs, weeding and feeding are only one. Surprising, too, takes less than half an hour for an entire 5000 sq ft lawn!

Just fill the accurate Scott's Spreader with clean, granular BONUS®, set the dial, and go. As you walk, the tiny BONUS granules are distributed evenly over every square inch of the lawn.

That way, BONUS weeds as it feeds. Makes a surprising difference in your lawn. As you'll see yourself.

Publish the Fair Facts

WALNUT LAKE — Stanley Phillips, chairman of the recent Walnut Lake Scout Fair, watched approvingly when members of Scout Troop 41 turned out special editions about the event. Don Hastings looks over the finished product while Hal Morse makes a few mechanical adjustments. The troop, directed by Scoutmaster Art Brooks, produced two publications on the fair as part of their requirements for journalism merit badges. In addition, the scouts also built a fire signal tower for the fair.

Tickets Available For Water Follies

Tickets for the Water Follies of 1961 are now on sale, according to John H. Stewart, general chairman of the International Freedom Festival spectacular.

The Water Follies, the world's largest water, stage and musical revue, will be held in the new air-conditioned Convention Arena in the Civic Center, July 2, 3 and 4. There will be two performances daily, matinee performances at 2 p.m. and evening performances at 8 p.m., except July 3rd at 7 p.m.

Tickets for the event are available in this area at Deane's-Birmingham.

Franklin Band to Start Outdoor Concert Series

FRANKLIN—In tune with the gay, carefree spirit of a beginning summer, the Franklin Band will present the first of a series of outdoor concerts this Sunday at 4 p.m.

The evening concert will be conducted by Dr. Conrad Lam, whose musical aggregate boasts 22 instrumentalists.

A Strawberry Festival under the auspices of the Franklin Community Association will be held in conjunction with the concert. Activities are scheduled to begin at 3 on the village green.

Watching Dr. Lam's baton in the brass section are Ron Nightingale featured in a cornet solo; Wendell Lyoid, Robert Carson, James Jackson, Jack Skelton, Robert Smith, Don Conrad, Ron Brown, Richard Ankerso and Robert Esterline.

In the woodwinds are Roy Williamson, George Gross, Bill Ellison, Jerry Taylor, Robert Ezlinger, Dr. J. E. Rasmussen and Win Hinman.

The percussion section presents Mrs. Conrad Lam on the Bass drum, Miss Landa Rowe, Roy Hugh White, Kevin Munn and Warren McKenzie on snare drums.

Franklin's Boy Scout Troop 1011 (changed from B-11 to accommodate the machine age and mechanical file systems) held its spring court of awards Monday night to honor retiring scoutmaster Harold Dillow and newly appointed scoutmaster Wilkie White.

A large and impressive advancement program produced one Life scout, Robert Long, and four Star ranks with William White, Frances Gadd, Ron Simpkins and Robert Holmes.

Nine boys received their first class badges. Thirty-two merit badges were earned by 16 scouts.

Troop 1011 reported a successful canoe trip down the Manistique last weekend with 22 canoes plying their way down stream and only two overturned.

Franklin's Brownies and intermediate girl scouts held an Outdoor Day program June 3 at Froid Lake to hold 89-up ceremonies and a court of awards.

Troop 115, seventh grade intermediates, planned the group and organized details of the day. Each troop held separate ceremonies, off by themselves in separate areas of the camp site, but joined together for games.

Mrs. Arthur Marshall of Wellington Road, leader of troop 116 has been named new neighborhood chairman to succeed Mrs. William Rummell, who will move soon to Ohio.

Mrs. Marshall has had long experience in scouting and will represent nine units, four Brownies and five intermediate troops.

The neighborhood may be subdivided to include two troops from St. Regis school next fall.

Leaders held a luncheon June 6 at Kingsley Inn to honor Mrs. Rummell's dedicated contribution to scout leadership in the community.

Mrs. Chester Hard Sr. of San Antonio, Tex. and Miss Helen Hard of Milwaukee are expected to arrive Friday for a short visit with the Junior Harde of Inkster. Although they made the trek across the country to see grandson Roger graduate from U of M on Saturday, they will be participating in a camping trip with former classmates Dan Doster and Rob Rottiers.

Sara Weed of German Mill Road finished junior year finals at U of M and headed for the West coast for two weeks.

Panela Sivier of Garden Way and friends will celebrate school's end with a barbecue party this Friday. The evening promises to be full of surprises with a scav-

BLOOMFIELD BEACH AND BOAT FACILITY

2 Lakes—Just Minutes from Home—Un-crowded.

Restricted to 400 families from the Bloomfield-Birmingham area.

WARNING—TAKE HEED.

Our entrance building is the best in an old bed beach. The few buildings are definitely not expensive or fancy. There is no restaurant. There is no bar. Beer, Wine and Liquor and Flunking on the Beach is Forbidden. ALL the old fashioned pleasures are observed. Bathers should be advised that we do not have a lifeguard. The help (College folks—school Teachers, Etc.) will be warm, friendly and courteous. They will not fear or annoy the Lifeguards, both male and female, are absolutely top professionals, who will protect the children to be instructed to obey them. In 15 years we have had no serious accidents. If you are a big corporation official or a small business executive you will both be treated in the same warm and friendly manner. Key employees will probably call you by your first name out here. Formality around the Beach and Boat Dock is out of place. Party dress is practically non-existent. Although we provide a bath house most of our guests change at home.

SPECIAL WARNING TO HUSBANDS

Our mothers and the children come every day the sun shines. House work is done only on rainy days in the summer time. Our food and drink prices are exceptionally high. Great big (2 1/2 inch) Hamburgers on Sesame Buns cost 75c. Delicious Hot Dogs cost 50c. Soft drinks are 40c or 50c. The Ice Cream Sundae costs 75c. The Ice Cream Sundae costs 75c.
