Lathrup Women Plan Coming Activities

Summer Rec Program To Begin in Lathrup

LATHRUP—Summer recreation at Lathrup School, sponsored by the Lathrup Village Recreation Commission, will begin Monday. Offered are chess school and modeling classes for girls. "Little Theatre" for boys and girls, tennis lessons and girls' softball.

and ninth grades in the fall, may enroll in the chess school classes which will be held Mondays from 1 to 2 p.m. If enrollments are sufficiently high, an 11 a.m. class will also be held. Mrs. Richard Anderson, 1880 W. Queenin, is in charge of registrations.

MODELING CLASSES for girls, age 15 or older, also begin Monday with registration at 1:30 p.m. at the school. Boys and girls, ages 6 through 13, are eligible for the "Little Theatre," which will be held Mondays and Thursdays for six weeks. The first class will be held Tuesday.

Mrs. David Dowling, 27252 Bloomfield, is the instructor. Registrations will be held at the city offices, 19600 Forest Drive.

Openings are still available on the four girls' softball teams. Permission slips may be obtained at the city offices and returned to the instructor by Wednesday at 4 p.m. Class hours at a more convenient time will be announced later.

Children of all ages may register for tennis lessons at the courts at 11 a.m. June 27, with lessons beginning the following day and continuing on Wednesdays and Fridays for six weeks.

Fete Bivy of Mayors As East Meets West

LATHRUP—Two Japanese mayors plus an interpreter were the guests of the John W. Deckers of Corn Gables June 8 just before the group moved on to the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McCracken in Southfield.

There to enjoy buffet dinner were an additional three mayors from Japan and Lathrup's mayor Richard N. Cogger and Mrs. Cogger, Southfield Mayor S. James Clark and his wife and the Louis Argosios, also of Southfield.

The officials from the Orient are all members of a municipal management team. They visited the Detroit Civil Service Bureau, on the 8th, and on Friday said their "hello" to Detroit Mayor Louis Miriani. According to Mrs. Deckers, the mayors are interested in establishing civil service in their home country.

And on the light side, the Deckers' sons, Scott, 10, and Bruce, 6, commandeered the fascinating, hand-carved chopsticks presented the family by their guests. Deckers, incidentally, discovered a mutual interest in rock-collecting—so two of the officials went home with choice samples.

A tiered wedding cake, golden chrysanthemums and an odd-sprayed leaves garland the table that keyed the 50th wedding anniversary celebration for the parents of Robert C. McMillan of Lathrup Boulevard.

The party was held June 3 at the Detroit Athletic Club and honored Mr. and Mrs. Eugene C. McMillan of Detroit. Cocktails preceded dinner in the main room of the club with the younger Mrs. McMillan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Post of Canton, Ohio, also present guests—plus the bride and friends of the golden wedding couple.

It must be catching for word comes to us of another golden wedding couple, the Fred H. Pike of Eldorado who marked his 50th today. On Sunday a very gala dinner is being planned in their honor at Dearborn Inn.

Hosts will be sons Robert Pike of Bloomfield Hills and M. Fred Pike of Royal Oak and their wives who will help the senior Pikes greet some 80 plus guests.

Among the latter will be a bride-maid who attended the couple at their 1911 wedding and some 15 of the wedding guests.

While in a mood for reminiscing, we were alerted to a very special doll house that was made years ago for 13-year-old Cathy Carson by her grandfather and which is now snugly encased in new quarters at Lathrup-Goswami Elementary School.

It was presented to the school June 8 by its former owner and she knows the small-fry students will enjoy it as much as she did.

They should—8 hosts electric lights, tiled and carpeted floors, a patio, a garage door that goes up and two bathrooms per bathroom.

And the nicest part was the thought that inspired the gift. Mrs. (Olive) Carson said she and Cathy wanted the cherished dollhouse to go "where it would be loved, to which it might be added, "in the style to which it has become accustomed."

If the ice cream social at Northbrook School turned out to be the huge success that was anticipated, a big haul would go to the 1000 people who arranged entertainment with a flair.
