

W. Beverly WNFGA Plans Flower Show

WEST BEVERLY—West Beverly branch WNFGA will stage its third annual flower show June 22 at the Mayfair Lane home of Mrs. Harold Reamster, club president. Mrs. Robert Engel has set 1 to 5 p.m. for member-viewing, 3 to 5 p.m. for the public. Co-hostesses for the dessert luncheon that precedes the exhibit will be Mrs. Charles Quick of Devonside and Mrs. Williams Bailey of Locherbie.

This year's arrangements fall in five classifications: "for judging" favorite container, miniature, foliage, contemporary or traditional and coffee-table settings. The specimen exhibits, limited to one branch or one bloom, will be another gown.

Local Couple Honors Four Festival Artists

VALLEY WOODS—Art in Beverly Hills means Carolyn Hall. Saturday evening, as program chairman of the Bloomfield Art Association she and her husband will hold a reception at their Kenosway Court home to introduce the first artists to exhibit at the new art center. Their guests will be 50 of those attending the 5 to 7 p.m. member-opens.

Pittsburgh artist Larissa Osby, who's showing both oils and collages, will be honored. She and her husband are houseguests of the Hills for the weekend.

Other honor guests are sculptor Tom McClure of Ann Arbor; Owen Brainard of East Lansing, who is hanging silk-screen prints along with his paintings; and Gerald Mast of Grand Rapids, famed for his mosaics as well as his paintings.

Mrs. Hall credits Mrs. L. P. Lawyer of 13 Mile, Edward Tuttle of Cranbrook Village and Lynette Tappers of Kenosway Court for assistance in launching the first show. Mrs. Norman Cleary of Birmingham assisted with the reception invitations.

The John C. Calhoun returned to Bellevue Trail last week after a month touring the British Isles, plus a week in Paris and Switzerland. Marked as especially memorable were English gardens, Shakespeare as played in Stratford-upon-Avon; their weekend at Glangary castle and the mysterious Scottish lochs.

"Nary a glimpse of the Loch Ness monster," says she, but they were initiated into the mysteries of British motor etiquette. Only two days along the Dover Road and they had to yield the right of way to cross-country runners. Before they returned, they also rode the Alpine cable cars.

The Marshall Wheatleys are glad to be back in residence in Eastland, before Prof. W. H. W. returns to his last physics class at Florida Southern, the weather seemed sticky to even year-round Lakelanders.

WEST BEVERLY—The Martin Hoovers of Riverside did a good bit of Stateside touring after their Hawaiian trip. They cruised to the Islands over a month ago on the Matsonia, stayed a week at Hawaii Village, then returned via Lualaba. Visits to Feather River Canyon, Lake Tahoe, Reno, Disneyland and Laguna followed before they flew home.

Some people break a leg while hurrying. Mrs. Samuel Dexter of Warwick fractured a rib in the rush to get off to her sister's former Village Mrs. Friedberg. The injury wasn't discovered until after arrival in Miami Beach. For the entire two weeks in Florida, she was all taped up with no place to go.

Summer tans will never match the H. B. Barkers'. The Dunblaine couple got a three-week tanswest on their Fort Lauderdale vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hopper saw the Indianapolis Memorial races as guests of former neighbors, the Thomas Marks. Before returning to the Nixon Road, they also visited in Cincinnati.

When Beverly Boy Scout Troop 1024 "camped" the Au Sable river from Grayling, Scoutmaster Don Seavasia was the only one who got drunk. Twenty-three boys and 13 dads made the 38 mile trip.

The Robert J. Talbot of Warwick were in New York City last weekend to attend the wedding of nephew Roy Murray.

Also headed east from Warwick were Carol Friedman. She went to Washington, D. C. after she finished her freshman year at the U. of M. Carol traveled in a mood of good news. Her father was made new vice president of the Wrigley chain.

Ten West Beverly couples gave a house-warming recently for the Sten Andersens in their new home on Kellen Lane in Bloomfield Hills—quite a slick trick since it was a complete surprise to the former Devonside couple.

The Williams Baileys of Locherbie and George Bowdens of Riverside made a date to see the house before dinner in town. So after they arrived, the other guests came bringing cocktails, dinner and all the makings of a party.

They were the Dalton Lambs and Robert Gilfers of Norchester, the J. Keith Sturats of Buckingham, the Jack Jamesons of Warwick, the Maynard Banksons of Devonshire and the Leon Jackmann, Robert Harringtons and Ken Manuals of Birmingham and Bloomfield.

EAST BEVERLY—Across town, if Mrs. L. G. Whitney of Georgina was hostess to a dozen friends of Mrs. Richard Geisler who moved to a new home in Birmingham yesterday. The ladies said their good-byes over morning coffee Friday.

Mrs. John M. Barich of Amherst was hostess last Monday when Delta Lambda, chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, had a luncheon and card party benefiting the Institute of Logic in Wichita, Kansas.

SOUTH BERKSHIRES—The Anthony Poppers of Leemore expect a busy day but they don't mind as long as they make the two graduations coming-up. Sharon's morning event at Seaboard means they'll miss the graduate breakfast at the U. of D. but they'll be there tonight when Shirley gets her degree in education.

Mrs. Russell McKinney of Stellars was hostess to seven yesterday for luncheon and bridge at Plum Hollow.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Maylin of Sheridan Drive held open house June 7 following the graduation of their daughter, Virginia Ross, from Marygrove College.

Virginia received a bachelor of science degree. She majored in interior design and art. Ginny's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wilson came from Hometown, Ill. to attend the graduation and the traditional serenade and lily procession of Marygrove.

What's in a Name?

Smiley Roberts let us in on one of his story-telling secrets the other night. He was coming to the punch line of one of his tales when Curly Rice piped up—

"It wasn't Smiley Wheeler who was stopped, it was my way home," he says, "I ought to know 'cause it was my dad."

"Guess you caught me," says Smiley. "You see, if I can't think of the right name I just fill in quick with any one that pops into my head. If I hem-and-law trying to think of a name, you fellows will lose interest. Besides, names are just details and don't affect the point of the story one bit."

From where I sit, Smiley's system teaches a lesson about living with our neighbors. Details about people aren't as important as we make them. If someone doesn't vote the way I do, or share my preferences for a glass of beer, I shouldn't let it interrupt our friendship. Understanding that people have a right to be different is the "secret" of the "true story" of life.
