

To March in Birmingham

The smart-stepping Essex and Kent Scottish pipe band will march down Birmingham's main streets to the geodesic dome in Shain Park next Tuesday night. Beginning from the Greyhound bus station on S. Woodward, at 8 p.m., they will head north to Woodward and Maple, swing west on Maple to Henrietta. From that corner they will march into the dome where they share the spotlight with the Ukrainian Bandurists chorus for the evening.

Children to Portray Flowers in Special Play for Festival

The art of arranging flowers and vegetables, as practiced by children 5 to 15, will be on display at Showcase, 136 Brownell, during the 4th annual Birmingham Arts Festival.

Children themselves will portray flowers in a play written especially for the festival by Martha V. Hard of Showcase.

Young actors and actresses from Mel Whittle's Young People's Studio Theatre will present the play at 11 a.m. Saturday,

June 24, and 3 p.m. Sunday, June 25. The play is titled "A Children's Garden of Flowers."

ALSO ON view at the store during the week will be the work of 25 members of Birmingham's Terra Cotta Sculptors.

Showcase hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily, 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. Sunday, and 9 to 9 p.m. Tuesday and Friday.

Mrs. K. H. Busha, International cooperation chairman for the Maplewood

Branch, Women's National Farm and Garden Association, is coordinating the floral and vegetable arrangements exhibit.

It was designed to encourage children to practice and develop skills in the art. Participation in the display is open to kindergarten through ninth grade children.

Souvenirs will be given to the participants.

Mayor to Officially Open Arts Festival

Birmingham-Bloomfield area officials will participate in the ceremonies in which Mayor Florence H. Willett officially opens the fourth annual Birmingham Arts Festival.

The ceremonies will be held in the geodesic dome at Shain Park at 2:30 p.m. Saturday, June 17. Mrs. E. Goven Hill, 530 Fairfax, Birmingham, is chairman of the event.

FOURTH ANNUAL BIRMINGHAM ARTS FESTIVAL

Plan Your Week (June 17th-24th)
To Include These Outstanding

STAR PERFORMANCES

IN THE GEODESIC DOME
Birmingham, Michigan

- ★ ODETTA Sings Folk Songs
Saturday, June 17th—8:40 p.m. Admission $3.00*
- ★ ODETTA Sings the Blues
Sunday, June 18th—8:40 p.m. Admission $3.00*
- ★ "DARK AT THE TOP OF THE STAIRS"
Detroit-Windsor Theatre Council Prize Winner
Monday, June 19th—8:40 p.m. Admission $2.00*
- ★ ESSEX AND KENT SCOTTISH PIPE BAND AND UKRANIAN BANDURIST CHORUS
Internationally Famous Musical Groups
Tuesday, June 20th—8:40 p.m. Admission $2.00*

- ★ DEMONSTRATION OF GOURMET COOKING
Chefs Philippe Velez and Charles Garel from the London Chop House
Wednesday Matinee, June 21st—2:30 p.m.
Admission $.75
- ★ GOLDEN AGE OF COMEDY
Excerpts from Cinema's Best
Wednesday Evening, June 21st—9:00 p.m.
Admission $1.25
- ★ BUMBLES
Musical Play for Children staged by Vanguard Theater
Thursday Matinee, June 22nd—2:30 p.m.
Admission $1.00

- ★ AN EVENING OF POETRY
Pulitzer Prize Winner—W. D. Snodgrass
Thursday, June 22nd—8:40 p.m. Admission $2.00
- ★ JAZZ IN SUBURBIA #1
Top jazz artists in unrehearsed jam session
Friday, June 23rd—8:40 p.m. Admission $3.00*
- ★ JAZZ IN SUBURBIA #2
More top jazz artists perform
Saturday, June 24th—8:40 p.m. Admission $3.00*

*PREFERRED SEATS
50 CENTS EXTRA

Reserved Seats
For Entire Series—$17.50

TICKETS ON SALE AT GRINNELL'S BIRMINGHAM AND DOWNTOWN STORES

MAIL ORDERS—Send check or money order to Morris Purdy, Ticket Chairman
Birmingham Arts Festival, Harlan Building, Birmingham, Michigan.

FOURTH ANNUAL BIRMINGHAM ARTS FESTIVAL