

June 16 thru June 24

Demery's
DETROIT-BIRMINGHAM

We are proud to feature, in our display windows, outstanding paintings, crafts and sculpture for the

BIRMINGHAM
ARTS
FESTIVAL

"Wie Spat Ist Es?"—Emil Weddige

See these fine art works in our Hamilton Street windows during the Arts Festival.

SCULPTURE and CRAFTS

- Stoneware Bowl ----- Lawrence Jelf
- Stoneware Vase ----- Nancy Plum
- Alabaster ----- Barbara Broock
- Stoneware ----- Ralph Pardington
- Stoneware Bowl ----- Ralph Pardington
- Enamel Tray ----- Beth Weeren
- Pottery ----- Barbara Mansfield
- Sculpture ----- Kenneth Beer, Jr.

PAINTINGS

- "The Secret Place" ----- Margaret Pater-Bennett
- "No. 5" ----- Peter Bradley
- "Rock Landscape" ----- Catherine Hartley
- "Ides of March" ----- Albert Mullen
- "Construction" ----- Dorothy Siddall
- "Wie Spat Ist Es?" ----- Emil Weddige
- "Street Scene" ----- Carol Wald
- "Spring Fields" ----- George Bayliss
- "Brain Storm" ----- Irene Foukes
- "Enter the Yellow" ----- Irving Kaufman

In The Birmingham Room — Special Collection Exhibit From Michigan State University — June 17 to 24

Demery's
DETROIT-BIRMINGHAM

Included in this special exhibit will be not only art works of general interest from MSU, but painting and sculpture from the private collections of faculty members. Works by Dr. John Galloway, MSU Art Department Head, and Mr. Lloyd Raddell, Mrs. Rennee Radell and Mrs. Mary Heteny, MSU Art faculty members, will be featured. Be sure to see this Art Festival highlight.