BIRMINGHAM

Brides

William Dunphy of New York, William Zielman of New York and James McCormick of Kentucky seated the guests.

Mrs. Glean chose an ice blue sheath with a satin cummerbund for her daughter's wedding. She wore a blue silk organza hat with white trim and carried a corsage of pink rosebuds.

The bridegroom's mother wore a champagne beige embroidered silk sheath and wore a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Following a honeymoon in Gatlinburg, Tenn., the newlyweds will reside in Hanesville, N. H.

George Bay, Miss Herkommer

St. Martha's Episcopal Church in Dearborn was the scene Saturday noon for the marriage of Rosemary Bay to George Hayes Bay. The Rev. Walter Fry performed the ceremony.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Herkommer of Dearborn and Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Bay of Woodbury, Bloomington.

THE BRIDE appeared in a gown of peach de sole designed with a bodice of blue-embroidered nylon lace, full skirt and a chapel train. An illusion veil was fastened to an imported silver-plate stud earring. She carried a cascade of white roses.

Rosalind Herkommer, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Karl H. Herkommer and Mrs. Andrew Herkommer.

ATTENDANTS' dresses were lilac silk organza with embroidered floral appliques. The maid of honor carried a nosegay of white roses centered with lilac stephanotis and the bridesmaids' nosegays consisted of lilac stephanotis centered with white roses.

Following the noon ceremony, a reception followed at Dearborn Country Club. The new Mr. and Mrs. Bay will reside in San Francisco, Calif.

Robert H. Elliott, Miss Ferrill

Nita Ann Ferrill became the wife of Robert Hayes Elliott Saturday evening at a candlelight ceremony at Franklin Community Church. The Rev. Hugh C. White officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas William Ferrill, 4975 South Chubbury, Birmingham. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Charles Elliott of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Gowned in a white peau de soie Bianchi creation, the bride carried a cascade of white cymbidium and stephanotis. A double ringed headpiece caught her four-tiered veil. Delicate seed pearls accented both the bodice of the gown and her crown.

MRS. KENNETH McGEE of Cincinnati, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Nancy Wohlwender of Cincinnati and Donna Lee Ferrill, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids with Barbara Beaudry of Bloomfield Hills as flower girl.

The bride's attendants wore white silk dresses with bouffant skirts. Pink flower detailing accented the outfits. They carried pink and rose carnations. The flower girl was dressed in a frock of pink silk with a white organza over-skirt.

KENNETH McGEE was best man with Gary Cobb and Thomas Angus, also of Cincinnati, seating the guests.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Ferrill wore a dress of champagne chiffon with lilac bodice. The mother of the bridegroom chose an ensemble of blue peau de sole with a blue lace bodice. Both mothers wore cymbidium orchids.

For traveling, the bride donned a white silk linen suit with blue accessories. The couple will reside in Cincinnati.

H. D. Baker, Miss Robeson

In a double-ring ceremony Saturday at the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham, Linda Mary Robeson and H. David Baker of Fort Huachuca, Ariz., were united by Dr. W. Glen Harris.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison C. Robeson, 1326 Overhill Road, Birmingham.

The bridegroom is the son of Dr. Kenneth M. Baker of Cranburg, Co., and H. Ray Baker of Lakewood, Colo.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her father, the bride wore a princess style gown of summer tulle with Venetian point trim at the neckline and bodice. Her fingertip veil was caught by a small tiara which matched the gown trim. She carried white orchids and stephanotis.

Patricia Crossin of Arlington Heights, Ill. was maid of honor. Sharon Russell of Colorado Springs, Colo. was bridesmaid. Both wore yellow sheath dresses and carried yellow and white roses.
