

The Birmingham Eccentric

Thursday, June 22, 1961

A true patriot is one who is loyal and devoted to his own country . . . enough so that no personal sacrifice is too much to pay for its defense, even to the giving of his life during military necessity. Some Americans also love their country enough to stand up and sing its national anthem, on occasion. Some, alas! have been heard to mutter against "wasting time to sing the Star-Spangled Banner" at public gatherings.

BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN SECTION D

Maplebrook WNFCA To Meet for Luncheon

MAPLEBROOK — The Maplebrook WNFCA meeting will be held Wednesday at 12:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. G. W. Webb, 407 South Cranbrook Cross Road. A pot-luck salad luncheon is being planned by co-hostesses Mrs. W. R. Dashiell and Mrs. W. I. Pearson.

Each member is asked to bring a plant from her garden for the plant exchange. Program chairman, Mrs. Richard Knudsen, will show slides about National Flower Show exhibits. She will also show slides of northern Michigan.

BLOOMFIELD FARMS — Five years ago Mr. and Mrs. John Bull of Dartmoor decided to have a pot-luck picnic on their property and invite a few friends and their children.

Every year the gang gets bigger and bigger. This year the number of children has reached an all time high of 33.

FRANKLIN WOODS — Five young girls recently consulted with Mrs. Vaughan Fegley about plans to do something worthwhile. She gave them permission to establish the fair on the Fegley property.

One of the teens became the fortune teller, games were played and a tractor became a paying proposition when it was used for rides. The girls made cookies and brownies and sold them with cold lemonade.

A total of $23 was earned and given to the Oakland County Crippled Children's Society. The girls who participated include Connie Fegley, Paula Konop, Cindy Johnson, Leslie McElride and Danielle Smith. All of the girls are from the Pickering area.

BERKSHIRES — Former neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McElfresh, were entertained at the home of Dr. and Mrs. William Westcott of Parkhurst Drive and Mrs. Archie McColl.

A setting of tropical plantings around the Westcott swimming pool lent the right atmosphere for a Hawaiian luan. The guests were dressed in the authentic costumes and enjoyed the Hawaiian dishes, including the traditional roasting piglet.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kaot, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Desmond, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Straley, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Archie McColl, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Jacobs and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Collins.

MAPLEBROOK — The Maplebrook WNFCA held its State approved and merit award flower show June 12.

The senior judge for the show was Mrs. J. C. Calhoun. The two apprentice judges were Mrs. F. W. Kelsey and Mrs. Albert Carr. Rewards came in great abundance. In the first category, which was in the theme of "Cherished Friends", three blue ribbons taken by Mrs. W. H. St. Clair, Mrs. S. P. La Fontaine and Mrs. G. H. Webb.

In the second category the theme was "Littlest Flowers". Two blue ribbons went to Mrs. W. H. St. Clair and Mrs. W. I. Pearson.

This category was "A Visit to Grandma's". Blue ribbons were earned by Mrs. G. H. Webb and Mrs. Carl Neppach. Four red ribbons and six white ribbons were received by other members of the club. Junior division blue ribbons went to Diana Nappach and Carol Pearson.

Midvale Student Gets Blue Ribbon

Diane Neppach, a fourth-grade student at Midvale School, and a member of Brownie Troop No. 373, was awarded a Blue Ribbon by the Maplebrook Club on June 12, for her entry in the Club's Flower Show.

Diane's entry was her own creation—a three-tiered common clay pot which Diane had painted with ivy and had decorated with a statue painted green by Diane. Diane is the nine-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Neppach, Jr., of 469 South Williamsbury, Bloomfield Township.

Gerard Racines Fete Daughter, Son

Mr. and Mrs. Gerard A. Racine of Amberly Road, Bloomfield Village, entertained at a pool party and dance at the Birmingham Athletic Club Tuesday evening in honor of their daughter Jaqueli and son Jerry.

One hundred guests danced to music provided by The Paragons. Jaqueli graduated from Inmaculata High School and her brother also is a June graduate. He attended Catholic Central High School.

FORTISSIMO

Classic-Contemporary . . . a never-before blend of the old and the new . . . elegant, functional contemporary walnut with a continental accent . . . more than 70 design-mated pieces . . .

We introduce a brilliant, exciting, entirely new furniture concept, created by Merton L. Gershan. Fortissimo is contemporary—clean and uncluttered—but Fortissimo is classic with the Mediterranean look of opulence, serenity and sophistication. The rich woods are hand-rubbed to a mellow patina with oversize antique brass hardware, antique white finishes, ebony black columns, delicate grille work, marble insets, swirling inlays . . . Fortissimo LOOKS EXPENSIVE BUT ISN'T. See it to appreciate its full beauty . . . today!
