Limelight on Youth As Summer Begins

With school out and vacation beginning for the younger generation, it seems appropriate to concentrate on campers and collegians and to announce the arrival of a brand-new mis who made her debut on June 9 on Pleasant Trail.

The baby is Margie Elizabeth who tipped the scales at birth at 11 1/2, eight pounds, 13 ounces and whose middle name is the same as her grandmother's, on mother's side of the family.

She is the second daughter for the Duane Murphys whose oldest, Susan, 2 1/2, is the "cutest" very well," according to her proud father.

Eleven grandparents are present and Mrs. J. F. Murphy of Egan Road in Birmingham.

In a somewhat older age bracket are five boys who will head for camp in the near future.

Jack Bryan, 14, patrol leader for Birmingham Boy Scout Troop 1901, will spend the month of July at Charles Hollow Scout Camp near Brighton.

Eleven-year-old Paul Gabler will spend the first half of July at the same camp and will mark his 12th birthday during his holiday. He is the son of the Lloyd Gabler. Jack's parents are Dr. and Mrs. John K. Bryan.

Local Belles Honored At Graduation Parties

LATHRUP—A round of parties celebrated the graduation of local belles from Southfield High School.

There was the open house at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Camill on Sunset with daughter Rosann as hostess. She, incidentally, is a member of the National Honor Society.

The open house was held June 10 and was attended by fellow graduates and friends. Rosann will attend Michigan State University in the fall.

Another gala was the afternoon tea Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Beck of Cambridge Drive, as hostess. Graduate friends who attended were Norma Biederbaum, Mary Ann Mastashian, Linda Ortolani, Judy Schenewy, Rosann Camill, Barbara Sarafian, Isabelle Owen, Sharon Fleischer and Kate Dickerson.

All the girls will go on to college with the exception of Kate who will take the first step toward a career in nursing at Harper Hospital and Sharon who will enter Carnegie Institute to train as a medical technician.

Next came an afternoon event held yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Webster J. Owen, Isabelle's parents.

Swimming and supper were on the agenda. Isabelle's guests were Beverly also will celebrate a birthday soon. Hers is on July 4.

To digress a moment from young doings, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gabler entertained his parents last week end.

They are Mr. and Mrs. Wallace F. Gabler of De Zure, Pa. who will spend a month in the area before going on to New York to visit their parents. The young Mrs. Gabler is former Royal Oak resident.

A supper party followed on the heels of a splash party for 12 Girl Scouts from Troop 358, 45—the Hugh Clark home, was daughter Carol, 12, hosting her troop members. Climax of the day's festivities was the court of awards. The troop meets at Beverly School.

As for the college crowd, exams are over and vacation well underway.

Louise Coury, daughter of the George Coury of Autumn Lane, returned June 10 from her freshman year at Michigan State University.

Two other Autumn Lane residents back from college are Jim Johnson who will be a Junior at the University of Michigan in the fall and Gail Ann Hobbs who has just completed her freshman year at Eastern Michigan. Gail Ann's parents are the Gailen Hobbs Jim the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rose Ann Johnson.

Back from Western Michigan on June 8, Sue Oratovic, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Oratovic of Kocq Creek Drive, will be a sophomore come fall.

MSU is the "home away from home" of John Pelletier, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Pelletier of Northgate. John will be a junior this autumn.

Over at the Edward LeFevre on Rainbridge Drive, little Jeanne chatted on her second birthday June 13. Family and friends gathered two days earlier for a cook-out on the LeFevres.

And big sister Anne, 5, invited her school friends from Beverly School kindergarten over for a bit of partying on the sixth. She will enter St. Bede's first grade in the fall.

No matter what you have to sell, Birmingham's Eccentric classified ads will do the best job for you. The cost is low, they're easily prepared and usually bring desired results.
