

Bride Wears Gown Of Ivory Taffeta

Gowned in pale ivory bouquet taffeta, Mary S. Fellows became the bride of Eberhardt R. Frixen Saturday evening at Franklin community Church. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Fellows of Franklin and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Frixen of Glen Lake, Mich.

MRS. EBERHARDT FRIXEN

THE BRIDE'S full length gown was designed with alencon trim on the bodice and front panel of the skirt.

Janice Schock served as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Albertus Frixen and Maureen Clemons. They wore street length nylon chiffon sheaths with satin accents and panels.

Albertus Frixen, bridegroom's brother, stood as best man. Ushers were Wilfred Frixen, bridegroom's brother, and David Roehm.

FOR HER daughter's wedding, Mrs. Fellows chose a watermelon pink silk organza sheath and the bridegroom's mother selected the pale lavender dress.

Following a honeymoon in Florida, the young couple will live in Farmington.

The bridegroom's aunt, Signora Maria Bortolotti, came from Milan, Italy, for the ceremony.

Christ Church Scene Of Afternoon Wedding

Virginia Megan Wood became the bride of Frank Koch-Wolfinger Saturday afternoon at a double-ring, candlelight ceremony at Christ Church Cranbrook. The Rev. Lester Doherty, Jr. and the Rev. Scott W. Leonard, pastor of Northwest-ern University officiated.

The bride's parents are Dr. and Mrs. John Palmer Wood of Edgemoor Road, Bloomfield Hills. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leonard of Northwest-ern University.

An ivory peau de soie gown fashioned on princess lines with a portrait neckline and bracelet length sleeves was chosen by the bride. The bell-shaped skirt, with back fullness fell into a cathedral train. Her veil was of imported Brussels rose tulle and trimmed lace. She carried lilies of the valley, centered with white roses and ivy.

BEVERLY BLANCHARD of Bloomfield Hills was the maid of honor. Her dress was white silk organza over blue taffeta, fashioned with scoop neckline and princess bodice. The bell-shaped skirt was accented with bands of blue embroidered flowers with insertion of satin ribbon. Her headpiece matched her gown and was attached to a circular veil. She carried a bouquet of shattered blue carnations and ivy.

The bridesmaids' gowns matched that of the honor attendant. They were Charlotte Wolfinger, sister of the bridegroom, of Chevy Chase; Lindanne Clemons of Prospect

MRS. F. K. WOLFINGER

Heights, Ill. and Harriet Hemenway of Bennington, Vt.

JOHN SELLDORFF of Rochester N. Y. was the best man. Guests were seated by John Palmer Wood III of Bloomfield Hills, Leander Stuart and Michael Bander of Chevy Chase, John Hansen of Elmhurst, Ill., and William Howell of Dearborn Grove, Ill.

The bride's mother wore a gown of frosted blue silk organza with a bell skirt and re-embroidery of blue petals. She pinned white orchids to her deep pink purse. A reception at Oakland Hills Country Club followed the wedding.

The new Mrs. Wolfinger wore a green silk linen costume suit and small flowered hat trimmed in white, for her wedding trip to northern Michigan.

Newlywed John Groves To Live in Dearborn

In a double-ring ceremony at Bushnell Congregational Church, Ann Patricia Umphrey and John Richard Groves were united in marriage Saturday afternoon. The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Umphrey of Hills Drive, Birmingham. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Groves of Hamstead, Birmingham.

The bride wore a gown of peau de soie in ivory, fashioned with bodice of re-embroidered alencon lace studded with pearls and sequins. A bateau neckline and elbow-length sleeves were accented by a cummerbund waistline. Her bell-shaped skirt of unpressed plenty, with roses at the waistline, fell into a chapel train. Her bouquet veil was attached to three large roses to match her gown.

HER HONOR ATTENDANT,

MRS. JOHN RICHARD GROVES Nancy Denyes of Norfolk, Va. wore Hawaiian cherry nylon chiffon with a satin cummerbund, scoop neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. The back of the bell-shaped skirt was accented with tiny bows. A small band of matching leaves, fashioned of chiffon made up her headpiece and carried a cascade bouquet of delicate pink roses with bows and ribbons in two shades of pink.

Joan Hitehikias and Susan Blakney, both of Detroit, and Mrs. Charles Bingham of Southfield Township, bridesmaids, wore gowns that matched that of the maid-of-honor.

The bridegroom was attended by Terry Burke of Detroit. Ushers were Dennis Burke of Madison Heights, Daniel and Thomas Groves, Robert Stevenson and Thomas Connel, all of Birmingham.

MRS. UMPHREY chose a powder blue silk organza sheath with a large applique on the front of the dress for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother wore a champagne gold, Italian silk sheath with jewel neckline. Both mothers pinned white orchids on their purses.

Following a reception at the church, the couple left for a wedding trip to northern Michigan, they will make their home in Dearborn.

Chapter Celebrates Second Anniversary

The South Oakland Chapter of National Secretaries' Association held their second anniversary celebration dinner meeting June 20 at Northwood Inn.

Entertainment for the evening included several vocal numbers by Mrs. Marion Stannard, 50C member, who was accompanied by her husband, Richard Stannard. Immediately following was the annual presentation of scholarship awards by Mrs. Lois Gaigialis, president of the chapter.

HIGHLIGHT of the evening was the installation of new officers for the 1961-62 year in a candlelight ceremony. They are Mildred Storch, president; Grace Erway, vice president; Louise Feighner, recording secretary; Viola Campbell, corresponding secretary and Grace Lewis, treasurer.

Hoovert-Richardson Rites Read at First Presbyterian

Martha Hoovert became the wife of Stephen King Richardson Saturday in an evening ceremony at the First Presbyterian Church, Birmingham. The Rev. Dr. W. Glen Harris officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hoovert, 7 Lone Pine Court, Bloomfield Hills. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger K. Richardson of Attleboro, Mass.

ESCORTED TO THE altar by her father, the bride wore a gown of white peau de soie with a fitted basque bodice and a bouffant skirt. She wore a mantilla heirloom lace veil and carried a crescent of white gardenias and ivy.

Mrs. John Hoovert of Ann Arbor was matron of honor with Cynthia Common of Dayton, Ohio, and Townley Gamage of Gloucester, Mass., as bridesmaids.

The attendants wore open blue silk organza dresses with princess bodices and belted skirts. They carried pink anemone roses and ivy.

THOMAS ODE RICHARDSON stood as best man. Norcross Teel Jr. of Lexington, Mass., and Douglas M. Bennet of Attleboro, Mass., seated the guests.

MRS. S. K. RICHARDSON

A reception was held following the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. The newlyweds will reside in Chicago where the bridegroom plans to attend graduate school at Northwestern University.
