Franklin Community Church Sue Ann Carpenter Weds Larry Oliver

Scene of Evening Ceremony

Given in marriage by her father, Kathryn Ann Hinman became the bride of Ronald Francis Hoepfner Friday evening at Franklin Community Church. The bride's uncle, the Rev. T. J. Mattingly of Knoxville, Tenn., performed the 8 o'clock ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winfield C. Hinman of Wallington Drive, Franklin. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis P. Hoepfner of Highland Park.

KATHRYN wore her mother's wedding gown fashioned of ivory satin with a court train designed with short puffed sleeves and the skirt was trimmed with a tailored bow and streamers. A matching satin pillow secured her elbow-length veil of silk illusion. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and ivy.

Honor attendant appeared in a beige silk organza over gold taffeta designed with a scoop neckline, elbow length sleeves and a bell-shaped skirt. Bridesmaids' dresses were olive green silk organza over white taffeta styled like

MRS. RONALD HOEPFNER, the matron of honor's gown, Franklin Hoepfner stood as best man and ushers were Allan Mandigo, Mark Wise, James Padlock, Robert Hinman and Dennis Baker. The bride's mother wore a white peau de soie sheath and a white veil. Mrs. Hoepfner selected a mauve peau de soie sheath and a pink rose corsage.

A TEA reception followed the double ring ceremony in the Church Social Hall. The bride's traveling costume was a rose silk shantung suit with white accessories. The young couple are honeymooning in northern Michigan.

Sue Ann Carpenter became the bride of Larry David Oliver June 17 at an evening ceremony at the First Methodist Church, Milford. The Rev. Howard P. Short officiated. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart E. Carpenter of Milford, formerly of Birmingham.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Leslie C. Oliver of Brighton. Embroidered Alpacra lace accented the tulle bodice of the bridal gown of mousseline de soie. It was designed with a petal scalloped décolletage and brief shirred sleeves. A court train fell from a peplum bow bustle.

She carried a bouquet of white rosebuds, baby mums and stephanotis.

BONNIE KAYE Carpenter, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her gown of Nile green taffeta was fashioned with fitted bodice and belted skirt. Her headpiece was a matching flat bow with circular veil.

Deep pink carnations and white baby mums were used in her bouquet. Bridesmaids, Karen Fromm of Detroit, Mrs. Arthur Howard of East Lansing and Lina McEneaney of Milford, wore gowns identical to the maid of honor's. Their corsages were pale pink carnations and white baby mums.

JUSTIN C. OLIVER, the bridegroom's brother, was best man. Ushers were James Ballard of Northville, Arthur Howard of MRS. L. D. OLIVER, East Lansing and Robert Gaffney of Flint. The bride's mother, attired in beige lace over taffeta, wore a gardenia corsage. The bridegroom's mother was gowned in pale blue silk.

Out-of-town guests included the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pointer, formerly of Birmingham, and her uncle, K. K. Painter of N. Y. A supper at Hi-Land Manor followed the wedding.

THE COUPLE LEFT on a wedding trip to northern Michigan. They will make their home at University Village, East Lansing.

Visits University Among local students who attended a two day "get acquainted" period at Western Michigan University was Sandra Seyfried. Over 2,200 prospective freshmen were visitors on the campus.

In Texas Wedding Marcia McFarland of Bloomfield Hills was the maid of honor June 6 at the wedding of Patricia Lou Hagan and Harold House Reed Jr. The ceremony was in Dallas, Tex.

Have You Met... Mr. and Mrs. Al Andreas of 6641 Burnham Road, Bloomfield Hills? They moved from E. Square Lake Road, on May 31. He is a sculptor designer with General Motors Styling Tech Center. They have four children, Ronald, Bruce, Marshall and Nancy.

Kirk in the Hills Scene of Ceremony

Barbara Jean Gardiner became the bride of Clyde R. Howse in a ceremony at Kirk in the Hills June 17. The Rev. Harold C. DeWind officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd W. Gardiner, 3371 Westchester. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clyde G. Howse of Pontiac.

Applied roses, intricately beaded, trimmed the bride's design gown of white silk organza, fashioned with a Sabrina neckline and bell-shaped skirt ending in a billow train. Her veil of illusion

MRS. C. R. HOWSE fell from a double crown of iridescent beads.

THE BRIDE CARRIED a crescent-shaped bride's bouquet of white roses and stephanotis centered with an orchid. The maid of honor, Marcia Peters of Milford carried a bouquet of dark pink roses and violets. Bridesmaids Karol Miller of East Lansing and Joan Merrell of Detroit carried bouquets with light pink roses and violets.

Their gowns were violet silk organza, sheaths fashioned with organza overskirts and cummerbunds. They wore headpieces of sweetheart roses and violets.

ROBERT HOWSE attended his brother as best man. Ushers were the bride's brother, Donald Gardiner, and George Breen of Pontiac.

The bride's mother wore a silk organza sheath in a hyacinth shade, with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother was gowned in a powder blue dress of organza and lace. Their corsages were orchids.

A reception at Rotunda Inn on Pine Lake followed the ceremony.

THE BRIDE WORE a light gold silk shantung suit as a going away costume. The couple are spending a three-week honeymoon in California, with a brief sojourn in Hawaii.

On their return they will reside at 99 Mill Road, Union Lake.
