

Dedicate Research Center

AFS Foreign Students To Visit in B'ham Area

A busload of American Field Service foreign exchange students will arrive in Birmingham Monday as part of a three-week tour of the United States before returning to their home countries. The 35 students, representing 17 countries, will stay in area homes during their three-day stay. All of the young people have spent the past school year with an American family while finishing their senior year at a U. S. high school.

THE BLOOMFIELD HILLS AFS chapter will be host to the visitors. The bus will arrive at 3:30 p.m. Monday at the First Presbyterian Church parking lot. It will depart at 9 a.m. Thursday.

Families who will host the students include Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Berridge, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Eyrone, Dr. and Mrs. L. J. Fink, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Harfner, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hall, Dr. and Mrs. J.

Katherine Ahrens Receives Habit

Miss Katherine Louise Ahrens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don E. Ahrens, 540 Haverrill, Bloomfield Hills, was among 43 young women who received the habit of the Maryknoll Sisters of St. Dominic Saturday.

Miss Ahrens, Detroit diocese, received the habit at the missionary community's Novitiate in Valley Park, Mo. Joseph, Cardinal Ritter presided.

She was given the name in religion of Sister M. Anne Duchesne, and will be eligible to pronounce vows after a two-year Novitiate.

MISS AHRENS graduated from Geau Grade School and Immaculate High School in Detroit and from Manhattanville College in Purchase, N. Y.

Mr. Ahrens is a retired vice president of General Motors and former manager of Cadillac Division.

WNFGA Gives $75 For B'ham Flowers

City commissioners last week expressed appreciation for a gift of $75 earlier this spring from Birmingham Branch of Woman's National Farm and Garden Association for purchase of flowers to be planted near the Shain Park mall.

The forestry department has bought and planted 190 red trena geraniums in the north mall flower bed.

The money came from the WNFGA branch as part of its civic improvement program.

Ten from Area To Visit Campus

Ten Birmingham area freshmen who expect to enter Western Michigan University this fall will visit the campus for two days this summer. They will participate in a program of counseling, advance registration and other activities.

The local students are Barbara Bailey, Caroline Chapin, Ebba Hierta, Jill Saxe, Daniel Groves, Anthony Bruno, Robert Rouse, Thomas Forsythe, Judith Bishop and Alan Markhoff.
