SECTION D

There are times, we all know, when "silence can speak louder than words." Often, when seeking to express sympathy to another for his sorrows, the right words may fail us; then silence is better understood. Too, often in our daily contacts it "pays off" to maintain periods of silence when another speaks—maybe he deserves one's quiet attention; maybe his words deserve no answer.

MEADOWLAKE — Mrs. Grover Ramsey, president of Meadowlake branch WNFCA, says the weather necessitated cancellation of the splash party scheduled for Monday at the home of Mrs. Clyde Fulton.

MAPLEBROOK — Mrs. Kenneth H. Busha, president of Maplebrook branch WNFCA, recently announced the chairman who will join with the executive board for the coming year.

They are: civic improvements, Mrs. Carl Neppach; conservation, Mrs. F. W. Whitson; education, Mrs. R. W. Layland; horticulture, Mrs. E. W. Harrison; horticulture therapy, Mrs. G. H. Webb; inter-cooperation, Mrs. J. B. Moore; program, Mrs. R. L. Knudsen; publicity, Mrs. W. I. Pearson; membership, Mrs. Josephine Lane; ways and means, Mrs. C. W. Richards.

BERKSHIRES — An over night stay at Greenfield Village was enjoyed recently by Girl Scout Troop 244.

The girls had dinner at Dearborn Inn, went for a hay ride and then to the village gym for swimming. After a song fest, they slept in the big dormitory and the next day toured the village.

Brennis Friess Weds Wayne Reavely Moon

A doubling ceremony at First President Church June 22 united Brennis Rosella Friess and Wayne Reavely Moon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Friess, 17501 Dunblaine, Beverly Hills.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Moon of Gladwin, Mich.

The Rev. Robert Graham performed the ceremony. Soloist was Mary Louise Smith.

MRS. W. R. MOON

matching mint green headpiece. Her flowers were roses and lillies of the valley.

Roger Moon of Gladwin was best man.

Ushers were David Zeerip of Wayland and Joel Dempki of Pinconning.

THE BRIDE'S mother was gowning in a dusty rose silk organza sheath with crystal embroidery. Her hat was mint green with rose-velvet bows. Her corsage was a green orchid.

The bridegroom's mother was attired in a green linen sheath with floral appliques. She wore a small flowered hat. Her flowers were orchids.

Dinner was held following the ceremony at Devon Gables.

The couple are on a two-month wedding trip to Europe.

On their return they will make their home in Ann Arbor. They are seniors at the University of Michigan.

Annual Pool Party Held at Local Home

FRANKLIN WOODS—The Walter Burton's garden and terrace bulged with 20 swimmers and sun bathers on June 17. Twenty guests were at the annual "opening pool party" at the Burton's home on Pickering Road.

Cocktails started the activities at 1:30 p.m. Swimming and games kept the guests busy all afternoon. After dinner Japanese lanterns made a perfect setting for terrace dancing.

At the Fred Oppman home on Pickering, Oppman hosted the annual party he has every year, for men and their wives with whom he is associated in business, with swimming and dinner.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Dale Pence, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Verba, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Alford and Mr. and Mrs. H. Harold Hershberger. Single fellows who brought guests were Ken Prokes, James Denton and James Hwalowitz.
