

St. Hugo Is Scene Of Morning Ceremony

Judith Ann Bromley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Bromley of Bloomfield Hills, became the bride of Michael James Schlaman Friday morning at St. Hugo of the Hills Church. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Schlaman of Detroit. The Rev. Father Francis T. Stack officiated.

MRS. M. T. SCHLAMAN

The bride chose a gown of imported silk organza with a scalloped neckline and bodice of alençon lace. The inset of silk organza was accented by a tailored front bow. Alençon lace motifs were used on the front of the skirt and also in the back fullness.

She wore a Juliet cap of silk with pleated French netting and butterfly French illusion veiling. Her flowers were a mass of lilies and stephanotis in a crescent arrangement.

HER ATTENDANT was Betty Janet Hamilton who wore a romance blue silk organza sheath with white embroidery, inset cummerbund, draping into a floating back panel and matching headpiece. Her flowers were yellow tea roses and stephanotis.

The best man was John Joseph Schlaman. Ushers were Frank V. Bromley and Walter T. Bromley, Jr.

Mrs. Bromley chose a blue silk sheath with champagne accessories for her daughter's wedding. The groom's mother wore a blue Italian silk sheath ensemble.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony.

'Golf Buffs' Try Skill At Party for Husbands

BRAES — The ladies of the St. David's Guild of Holy Name Church entertained their husbands recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stan Hagan on Eastmoor Drive.

A pollock smorgasbord followed cocktails. Since there were several golf "buffs", the fun began with exchange of challenges for short golf shots; some of the ladies were just as talented as the men with number 7 and 8 irons.

Jennie and Jim Tuyn impersonated famous theatre people and singers. The balance of the evening was spent dancing on the terrace.

THE GUEST LIST included Mrs. Allan Nicol, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Braun, Mr. and Mrs. George Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ebbins, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Forhan, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Jankowski, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Keller and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kusy.

Others were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Laska, Mr. and Mrs. George MacDuff, Mr. and Mrs. John Noyes, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Serba, Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin Simaueve, Mr. and Mrs. James Tuyn, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Norman and Mr. and Mrs. Leon De Galon.

Fathers Day was made happier for the Don Dits family of Old Orchard Drive when Mrs. Ditz' parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Danemiller of Saginaw, visited the family.

For one and one-half years, five women have bowled together every Wednesday morning. Scores have never been too impressive which explains why they call themselves "The Misfits".

One of the members, Mrs. Robert Smith, left Monday for the Netherlands to make her home traveling with her daughter Susan and son Skip.

Identical gowns were worn by bridesmaids, Hart Birnie and Carol Smet of Winchester, Mass.; Marion Sanford of Bronxville, N. Y.; Winifred Maischoss of Albany, sister of the groom; and Mrs. James Hough. They carried cascades of white carnations and sweetheart roses.

BEST MAN was John Hamlett of Buffalo. Ushers were James Adler of Cleveland; Peter Williamson of Pasadena, Calif.; Jon Herriot of Towson, Md.; Dr. James

Getting ready to sell your car? Advertise in the Classified Ads.

Richard, 5, and Timothy Lee, 3, are requesting three sets of boxing gloves from their parents, the Richard Bergmanns of Darramoor Drive, since a new brother arrived on June 9. The new arrival weighed in at 4 lbs., 12 oz.

WALNUT LAKE — The month of June has been a busy one for the John Phelps' whose home is situated on Walnut Lake.

On June 17, they entertained the adult Chancel Choir of the Trinity Methodist Church in Highland Park. It was a pollock with 35 guests enjoying sailing, motor boating. One or two zealous guests even helped launch a new raft.

Preceding this picnic, they had a splash party for 29 young members of the Carol Crusaders chorin of the same church, with guests from 4th grade through high school.

One June 16, a music recital was held at the home of the John Phelps' on Walnut Lake Road. Parents beamed proudly as the Phelps presented their students. Lucy and Bobby Dwyer played an organ duet, followed by Lucy and Susy Alex in a piano duet.

Helene McIntire, Penny Pittard, Sandy Snyder and Carrie Whinn did selections on the piano. Nancy Phelps played a flute solo and Janice Phelps a violin solo.

Mr. and Mrs. Phelps completed the program by playing piano and organ.

WEST BLOOMFIELD—Fifteen Members of the Music Guild of the Lutheran Church Of The Shepherd King met at the home of Mrs. Robert Bratton of Greening Road recently.

They agreed to sponsor a square

YWCA Group Meets For Picnic, Buffet

Both groups of the Pontiac YWCA's Golden Agers were guests of Mrs. Karl Schultz, 1545 Opdyke Road, Tuesday for a noon picnic.

Mrs. Marcus Scott and her committee served dessert and beverages. The YWCA Board of Directors were hostesses Wednesday at the annual buffet supper for the Pontiac State Hospital Y Group, which marked the close of the co-ed group's weekly recreational evenings at the Y, until September.

Mrs. Robert Anglemier and Mrs. Allan E. Monahan were co-chairmen for the group. Mrs. Judith Hewett, YWCA program aide, directed a program of group games.

Have You Met...

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Peddie who moved into their home at 675 West Maple in May? They are former Detroit residents.

Both the Peddies graduated from Michigan State. She was an Alpha Phi and he, a Sigma Nu. Peddie is a salesman with Reynolds Metals Co.

King-Fry Nuptials In Columbus, Ohio

Rosemary Sus King, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Barnham W. King of Columbus, Ohio, and James Palmer Fry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Fry, 1775 Hillside, Birmingham were married Saturday at the First Community Church of Columbus. The Rev. Charles Harris performed the ceremony.

MRS. JAMES P. FRY

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a princess dress of organza with chapel train. The empire bodice was of Chantilly lace with seed pearls. Lace medallions trimmed the skirt. A wreath of rosebuds with green leaves and pearls held her veil of illusion. She carried a cascade of white roses and ivy.

MRS. ROBERT LEWIS Jones of Urbana, Ill., the bride's sister, was her matron of honor. Mrs. Willard Fred Goldschmidt of Wheeling, another sister, and Judith Callahan of Columbus were bridesmaids.

Their bouffant dresses were of powder puff muslin flowered in blue and turquoise shades. They carried baskets of blue delphiniums. The bride's mother wore blue silk broadcloth and the mother of the groom wore mauve pink organza. Both wore coronas of rosebuds.

Radcliffe Members Attend June Meeting

The Radcliffe College Club of Detroit will hold its annual meeting today at 1:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. George M. Nottor Jr., 710 Grandfield Court, Birmingham.

New officers of the club are Mrs. Leonard J. Grabow of Saginaw, president; Mrs. Lawrence Hyde Jr. of Surrey Road, and Mrs. Walter A. Crow, vice president; Mrs. W. Thomas Love, secretary.

Mrs. Marshall M. Haasey, treasurer; Mrs. Herbert Fisher, scholarship chairman; Mrs. George Nottor, publicity chairman; Mrs. Nathan Spenkowitz and Mrs. Frederic Lovrie, members at large.

Sorority Members

Two local U of D grads have been accepted into Delta Zeta, national social sorority.

They are Mary Connelly, 26825 Scenic Franklin, and Christie Selbert, 6709 Rounds Hill Road.

Lynn Griem Marries At First Presbyterian

Lynn Elizabeth Griem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester V. Griem of N. Williamsburg Road, Bloomfield Village, became the bride of Walter Franklin Maischoss Jr. at an afternoon ceremony Saturday at the First Presbyterian Church in Birmingham. The Rev. Dr. W. Glen Harris officiated.

MRS. W. F. MAISCHOSS JR.

The bridegroom is the son of the late W. Franklin Maischoss of Buffalo.

The bride chose a gown of ivory silk taffeta with reembodyered Alençon lace bodice. The belted skirt frosted with Alençon, appliques swept into a chapel train. Her silk illusion veil fell from a bandeau of matching lace. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and ivy.

BETSY EWING of Louisville, Ky. was maid of honor. She wore a sheath gown of blue silk organza over taffeta with a wide cummerbund and sweeping back panel with matching headress. She carried pink miniatures roses and ivy.

Identical gowns were worn by bridesmaids, Hart Birnie and Carol Smet of Winchester, Mass.; Marion Sanford of Bronxville, N. Y.; Winifred Maischoss of Albany, sister of the groom; and Mrs. James Hough. They carried cascades of white carnations and sweetheart roses.

BEST MAN was John Hamlett of Buffalo. Ushers were James Adler of Cleveland; Peter Williamson of Pasadena, Calif.; Jon Herriot of Towson, Md.; Dr. James

Sorority President

Carol McKnight, 895 Puritan, Birmingham, has been elected president of Alpha Omicron Pi at Denison University. She will represent the sorority at its national convention at Atlanta, Ga., June 28-30.

Miss McKnight was also named "sweetheart of Lambda Chi Alpha," by the Denison chapter of the fraternity.

Demery's
DETROIT-BIRMINGHAM

Open Friday
till 8:45 P. M.
Ph: MI 7-2000

Encore!
If you weren't able to take advantage of the INTRODUCTORY SPECIAL last month, here's another opportunity to get our exclusive.

Reg. 22.50 Paristyle Deluxe
Cold Wave
THIS WEEK ONLY AT HALF PRICE 11.25

HAIRCUT, 2.00 MANICURE, 1.50

Phone MI 7-2000
Beauty Salon, Second Floor
Use Your Charge Account

Save as You Spend with G.N. Green Stamps

Congratulations To Dy-dee Wash

We're proud when one of our printing customers receives national graphic arts recognition

for EXCELLENCE IN LETTERHEAD DESIGN

Simple, yet modern design in the choice of lettering and color makes the Dy-Dee Wash letterhead a first-rate advertisement for the clean, sanitary conditions every Mother seeks from a diaper service. The use of the National Institute of Diaper Service's seal is outstandingly effective in identifying Dy-Dee Wash as a Diaseptic Process diaper service.

GOOD LUCK, Dy-dee Wash, we hope you receive many more awards for your outstanding printed pieces (produced in our plant, of course!)

THE AVERILL PRESS

of BIRMINGHAM
COMPLETE PRINTING SERVICES UNDER ONE ROOF