

To Finalize Plans For March 16 Shamrock Luncheon

WEST BEVERLY — The West Beverly Hostess Club will hold its monthly meeting early in March to finalize plans for the March 16 Shamrock luncheon.

Mrs. W. B. Shimer of Rosevear will be hostess for the March 7 coffee, assisted by Mrs. L. E. Bernardini and Mrs. W. G. Findlay. Chairman of the Shamrock committee, Mrs. George Detling of Hillcrest, reports that 2,100 Shamrocks were made in a one-day work-and-lunch session at her home recently.

She and advisor, Mrs. Hugh Miller, will direct committeeswomen selling Shamrocks at the Birmingham Country Club.

THE COMMITTEE includes Meses. Otto Carlson, G. F. Dashiell, Walter J. Zimmerman, L. J. Langston, Allan Loos, Gordon McBaie and Charles Quick, all of West Beverly.

Improvement Plan For Reading Started For Hills Seniors

BLOOMFIELD HILLS—Bloomfield Hills High School is offering a reading improvement program to members of the June graduating class.

The classes, which started Feb. 27, meet once a week for 10 weeks. Courses offered are tailored to meet the needs of the individual student. Past reading records determine group placement. The course is sponsored by the Hills Board of Education to improve reading skills for youths in college.

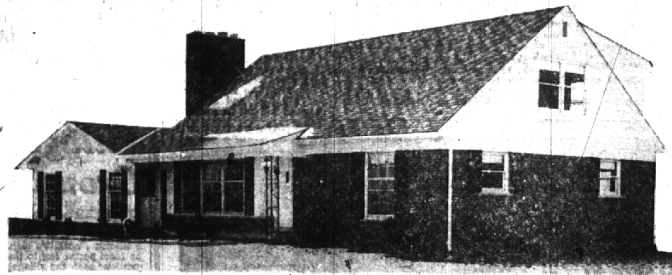

Prepare for Shamrock Luncheon

BEVERLY HILLS—Busy wrapping gifts for the March 16 Shamrock luncheon are (from left) Mrs. Alphonse Staeheli, 18861 West 14 Mile Road; Mrs. Herbert Ashcraft, 18531 Devonshire; and Mrs. John E. Murphy, 18460 Beverly Road. The women are all members of the West Beverly Hostess Club which sponsors the annual event. Proceeds from the luncheon are used to support the West Beverly Sewing Club. General chairman for the luncheon is Mrs. Harlan Ritze.

Vacationing Cadet Snags Hammerhead, Headlines

WEST BEVERLY — Warmer weather is luring everyone and "everything" to the Florida beaches — even shark! Cadet Robert Strand, son of the Nixon road Strands, captured headlines and a Hammerhead while surf fishing in Venice, Fla.

Robert is there for the winter session of Kentucky Military Institute. His parents hope to join him in April for a brief vacation before the cadets return to 437th don. Ky. quarters.

Other Florida vacationers include Fred A. Nordlies of Norchester who are spending several months at Deerfield Beach.

The D. H. Malloures of Beverly chose Ft. Lauderdale. They left last Friday for a 10-day vacation after a family party for Susan who usually celebrates her birthday March 5.

And only two Saturdays ago the Wallace O. Cunninghams of Balmoral returned from five weeks in Ft. Lauderdale, St. Petersburg and Sarasota.

The John Danekes of Buckingham spent two weeks in Ft. Lauderdale with her sister's family from New Jersey, returning to welcome her daughter, Mrs. John Donovan Jr. and Sarah and John, III, for a 10-day visit from Milwaukee.

Seeing double? The James Woods of Riverside are. They're attending a dress rehearsal of "Sound of Music" Sunday with WJR people and returning later with friends to compare it with the final staging.

Marge Stettbacher of Hillcrest flew to Russia with the University of Michigan symphony band two Fridays ago when they began a 15-week tour of 10 Russian cities and the Far East. The Wayne Stettbachers will time an eastern vacation with her return to New York in June.

EAST BEVERLY—Some like it hot—like the Milton Markers of Birchwood who returned recently from a 17-day Caribbean cruise with Detroit friends.

Some like it cold—like the Ted Suras of Kirkshire who returned at the same time from their annual skiweek at Boyne Mountain with eight other Michigan couples.

The Ross S. Campbells Jr. will entertain Saturday night on Birchwood with dinner and bridge. Taking over potluck will be the Charles Houghs, A. J. Roshboroughs Jr., the David Brennans and Bruce Smiths, all of Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Marshall Jr. of Kirkshire announce the birth of a second son (third child), David Dowd, born Feb. 15.

The Richard Blackhalls, now of Cleveland, Pribes and Eugene Laskos of Buttonwood court, and the Robert Gladfelters, Victor Zaitz, Selvyo Asquith, M. L. Pinkertons and Arthur Semacks, all of Coryell.

Beverly Hills can boast of its teenagers. Eighteen girls spent their own time and money recently to stage a party for children at the Oakland County home. From East Beverly there were Judy Fedack, Kit Siffeman, Judy Riskak, Gail Kingsbury and Kathy Shields.

SOUTH BERKSHIRES — The Charles Ashtons of Coryell held the first of a series of supper parties they're planning last Saturday with cocktails for the Richard Pribes and Eugene Laskos of Buttonwood court, and the Robert Gladfelters, Victor Zaitz, Selvyo Asquith, M. L. Pinkertons and Arthur Semacks, all of Coryell.

The Edward Boersigs of Stella made young Edward's confirmation at St. Bede's the occasion of a family dinner for Mr. and Mrs. N. D'Arcy and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lester of Detroit.

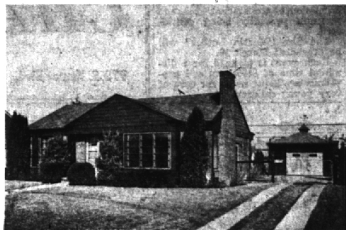

VALLEY WOODS—When Barbara Kittle pledged Alpha Omicron Pi, her dad, Kenneth Kittle of Westlady had first chance to meet her new sorority sisters (and big sister Lynne Thompson of Bloomfield) at the University of Michigan father-daughter weekend.

The John O'Brien are spending two months in Pompano Beach, Fla., returning to Bellvue Trail in April.

It's the James Severy's turn Saturday to serve dessert on Eastlady to a bridge club that's been dealing for some six years now.

Mrs. Richard Krygowski (nee Camille Tessmar) returned to the John Tessmars of Eastlady for a short visit after the birth of Kelly Ann, Feb. 15.
