Shamrock Lunch Celebrated Today

WEST BEVERLY — Irishmen, turn in your green! Except for today's Shamrock Luncheon, a reminder of St. Patrick's day could be found. Turning the Birmingham Golf Club into a little bit of Ireland was the trick of the West Beverly Hostess Club which stages the fashion-luncheon annually to benefit the West Beverly Sewing Club.

President Mrs. George Theising, vice president Mrs. Harland Ritze and sewing club president Mrs. Francis McCracken will welcome some 300 before Davidson's introduces its new spring-summer collection.

And in the party-before-the-party tradition, Mrs. H. F. Fischer of Kinnross and Mrs. Robert Engel of Riverside have invited a few friends for cocktails before the luncheon.

On March 25 the Nylyuds will receive Mrs. Donald MacIver who is coming from Dallas, Tex. for the wedding ceremony and celebrations.

The McMaster girls of Bellville are fast making a second home of Florida. Linda leaves Saturday for a week's visit in Palm Beach with a former Ferris classmate. Pam heads for Hialeah two weeks later to swim in the Women's Nationals with the six-girl team from the Women's City Club.

EAST BEVERLY—The Bernard Hengesbaughs of Marquette entertained four couples at cocktails and dinner last Saturday. And just the other evening, Mrs. Hennebach was hostess to 14 invited to a baby shower for Mrs. William Shively of Georgia.

A second son (fourth child), James Walter, was born Feb. 13 to Mr. and Mrs. Horace W. Potter of Auburn. Mrs. J. L. Cambell returned to Lima, Ohio, after three weeks with her newest grandchild.

Mr. and Mrs. William Webe planned their entertaining around the American Field Service "ski" movie. A dozen friends had dinner on Verona Circle.

Nothing keeps a good skier down—not even an emergency appendectomy! Mrs. Wallace Wheeler of Georgia was back at Silvan Knob with her family last weekend, only a month after surgery.

Twenty friends took pollock to the C. R. Guilford on Auburn last Saturday.

No thoughts of spring for Larry Doyle of Buckingham. He's braving the blizzard of the Dakotas on a three-month safety check for GM.

Mrs. Robert F. Sperling of Kirkshire offered her home this evening for a miscellaneous shower and buffet given by Mrs. William Bushway of Troy for April bride Lou Ann Miller.
