Another Straw in The Wind

By LOU CHIESE... Matty Bell, athletic director at Southern Methodist University, has announced that athletic scholarships at SMU hereafter will be awarded only to football and basketball players.

Truck, baseball, tennis, golf, wrestling and other minor sports must find for themselves in attempting to attract tonight's high school talent to the school that Duke Walker once made famous...

Seaholm Scores Ferndale But Loses in Last Minute

By JOE CADURU Sports Editor... It almost happened again. A month ago, Seaholm upset highly favored Ferndale.

one-point lead at 2:26, failed to score another point in the quarter as Ferndale's Mike Brown threw two buckets to narrow the margin to 27-25 at the half.

Record Breaker

Lee Driver is the new Class B state basketball champion. The Groves tanker splashed to a record of 1-06.4 in the 100. Although his time set a new state mark, it didn't break the school record.

Reflections

(Continued from 8-E) starts. Anxious eyes trying to do their best. But there were no disqualifications due to false starting.

The Birmingham Eccentric

SPORTS... SEAHOLM LEW throughout the second period but after getting a 200-yard individual medley, 2:41.9.

What a View

FRANKLIN - Went Newland's topsy-turvy view of world is just how a champ swims. A 30-ft MSU, 20-year-old Denton, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Newland, 2740 Crestwood...

THUS, IT BECOMES necessary that the football team remain as strong as possible to attract large crowds and revenues...

AS THE MULTITUDE of fans poured into the arena, grannies who tried their best to make the sisters feel at home. That is, if you are a sardine.

ALL-STATE Larry Tregoning was the game's initial scorer. He gave Ferndale a 1-0 lead with a free throw after being fouled.

THE BIRMINGHAM Eccentric... Groves' tankers showed surprisingly well in last week's Class B State meet in Ann Arbor.
