

The Birmingham Eclectic

40 PAGES
MARCH 23, 1961

BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN

SECTION A

Serving the Citizens of Michigan's Finest Suburban Residential Area

Ah, Sweet Spring

... Sure signs that it has arrived caught the camera's eye. Picture page is on Page 1-D.

Weekly Visit

... is with a designer who believes good taste is secret of "happy room." Story and photograph are on Page 2-D.

Beverly Methodists

... greet new minister. Photograph of and story about Rev. Robert Boley and family is on page 1-E.

- Amusements 6-E
- Bits of Birmingham 4-A
- Business Briefs 4-B
- Campus News 4-D
- Church 6-B
- County Column 8-B
- Down to Earth 8-A
- Editorials 4-A
- Legal Notices 4-B
- Nature Note 4-D
- Obituaries 4-A
- Real Estate 4-E
- Round the Towns 4-E
- Sports 6-C
- Theaters 6-C
- Women's News 6-D
- Want Ads 6-D
- Youth 2-B

This and That

by George R. Averill

University of Michigan's Fame Is World-Wide

A hundred million dollars annually is the amount of money required to operate the over-all educational curriculum of the University of Michigan. That is a lot of U.S. medium of exchange. ...

Mayor Names 6 to Michigan Week Jobs

Six key appointments for Michigan Week '61 were made by Mayor Florence H. Willett this week. ...

Swimming Pool Law Adopted by B'ham

An ordinance governing swimming pools with depth of two feet and over was adopted by Birmingham city commissioners Monday night. ...

Businessman Named Arts Festival Head

A business executive will direct the activities as Birmingham prepares to stage its fourth annual Arts Festival June 16 through 24. ...

YOU will get results from an Eccentric classified

Just phone MI 4-1100 and ask for "Classified"

Only 3 Days Left to Win A Trip to the Caribbean

If — as the "Prisoner's Song" says — 21 years is a mighty long time, then three days is a mighty short time. ...

Community House Collects 55% of Fund Drive Goal

Birmingham Community House reached 55 per cent of its 1961 fund drive goal Wednesday with $27,465 collected by individuals and business concerns. ...

As Plan Fulfilled

When the Birmingham city commission Monday night confirms the special assessment roll for its fifth municipal parking lot (west of Woodward and north of Willets), it will round out a plan that has taken more than a dozen years to fulfill. ...

B of E Launches Plan For Community Survey

Birmingham Board of Education formally authorized the employment of Community Research Associates of Ypsilanti to conduct a community opinion survey on Birmingham's education system at its meeting Tuesday night. ...

Businessman Named Arts Festival Head

A business executive will direct the activities as Birmingham prepares to stage its fourth annual Arts Festival June 16 through 24. ...

Swimming Pool Law Adopted by B'ham

An ordinance governing swimming pools with depth of two feet and over was adopted by Birmingham city commissioners Monday night. ...

Businessman Named Arts Festival Head

A business executive will direct the activities as Birmingham prepares to stage its fourth annual Arts Festival June 16 through 24. ...

Swimming Pool Law Adopted by B'ham

An ordinance governing swimming pools with depth of two feet and over was adopted by Birmingham city commissioners Monday night. ...

Businessman Named Arts Festival Head

A business executive will direct the activities as Birmingham prepares to stage its fourth annual Arts Festival June 16 through 24. ...

Swimming Pool Law Adopted by B'ham

An ordinance governing swimming pools with depth of two feet and over was adopted by Birmingham city commissioners Monday night. ...

Solution Proposed For Clinic Problem A County Department Suggested

Birmingham City Commissioner Carl F. Ingraham has offered a solution to the problem of financing the Oakland County Child Guidance Clinic. ...

Hearing Moved For Lot No. 5; Layout Approved

Birmingham city commissioners have approved a layout that would provide 403 parking spaces in Municipal Park Lot No. 5, referred to as the northwest quadrant lot. ...

Slain Scrap Dealer Township Resident

A hold-up man's gun blast ended the life of a Bloomfield Township resident Tuesday. Sidney Czeizler, 67, of 377 Kentwood, was killed in a vault store room in the Detroit offices of his secretary, Mrs. Belle Kapp, 39, was critically wounded by hit intruder. ...

Community House Collects 55% of Fund Drive Goal

Birmingham Community House reached 55 per cent of its 1961 fund drive goal Wednesday with $27,465 collected by individuals and business concerns. ...

As Plan Fulfilled

When the Birmingham city commission Monday night confirms the special assessment roll for its fifth municipal parking lot (west of Woodward and north of Willets), it will round out a plan that has taken more than a dozen years to fulfill. ...

B of E Launches Plan For Community Survey

Birmingham Board of Education formally authorized the employment of Community Research Associates of Ypsilanti to conduct a community opinion survey on Birmingham's education system at its meeting Tuesday night. ...

Businessman Named Arts Festival Head

A business executive will direct the activities as Birmingham prepares to stage its fourth annual Arts Festival June 16 through 24. ...

Swimming Pool Law Adopted by B'ham

An ordinance governing swimming pools with depth of two feet and over was adopted by Birmingham city commissioners Monday night. ...

Businessman Named Arts Festival Head

A business executive will direct the activities as Birmingham prepares to stage its fourth annual Arts Festival June 16 through 24. ...

Swimming Pool Law Adopted by B'ham

An ordinance governing swimming pools with depth of two feet and over was adopted by Birmingham city commissioners Monday night. ...

Businessman Named Arts Festival Head

A business executive will direct the activities as Birmingham prepares to stage its fourth annual Arts Festival June 16 through 24. ...

Swimming Pool Law Adopted by B'ham

An ordinance governing swimming pools with depth of two feet and over was adopted by Birmingham city commissioners Monday night. ...