By Betsy Wright
Special Writer

A great honor was recently bestowed upon Kingswood and more specifically, Miss Goodale, our headmistress. At the conference two weeks ago, Miss Goodale was elected president of the National Association of Principals of Schools for Girls.

This is the first time since 1952 that this position has been held by a principal from the Midwest. Miss Goodale will hold this office for the next two years.

The ENTIRE SCHOOL went to the polls March 14 to vote for next year's Student Council, Student Cabinet and class officers. Results of the Student Cabinet election were announced the following day.

The four representatives from next year's senior class—two boarders and two day students—are Carole Frisaille, Jane Gaiting, Emily Goshalk and Jane Leader.

Julie Frank and Mary Sprague will be the junior representatives for next year. Everyone is anxiously awaiting the announcements of the results of other school offices.

CONGRATULATIONS are also forthcoming to the winner of the Southfield welcomed the Men's Glee Club of the State University for a concert given on March 8 in the high school auditorium.

Their visit was sponsored by the high school vocal music department under the direction of Vincent Kochenderfer. Directed by Gordon Flood, the men presented renditions ranging from ancient chants to popular numbers.

Three Southfield graduates, Wayne Peterson, '57, Thomas Clark, '59, and James Parker, '59, are members of the 55-voice choir. The proceeds from this program are to be used to establish an Interlochen music scholarship fund.

AT THE NATIONAL Honor Society assembly, held on Feb. 22, in Southfield's gym, 36 juniors and seniors were recognized as new members of the society.

The induction of the new members consisted of two programs in the morning and another in the evening for the parents. Ann Fryfogie, president of the club, conducted the 29th assembly and spoke at the evening program.

Mr. Robert Hall, principal, introduced the new members to the parents at the evening program. Each signed the pledge of the National Honor Society and then received their pins.

SHARON DOMITZ, Barbara Kolehmainen and Carole Ales recently received Gregg shorthand awards for February. These awards are for five-minute dictations and are scored for word accuracy.

Each girl received a certificate.

THE COMBINED student councils of Southfield and Berkley purchased a Little Brown Jug to symbolize the rivalry between the two high schools.

After each basketball game between these schools, the jug will be presented to the victorious team. On Feb. 24, the jug was presented to its first owner, Berkley. The date and score will be inscribed by the Southfield student council.

STUDENTS of Spanish will be taking their bi-annual trip to Mexico soon. Miss Virginia Hammond, Spanish instructor, and a friend, Mrs. Paul Siebold, will be the sponsoring adults. The group of 20 will leave on March 31 by jet and return on April 9.

Their first stop will be Mexico City, where they will spend several days. From there the travelers will go to Cuernavaca and Taxco. Their last stop will be Acapulco on the Pacific, where they will spend two days.

The schedule includes visits to many points of interest at each stop. Among them are the University City. The floating gardens of Xochimilco, and the Shrine of Guadalupe.

On Feb. 23, the Southfield High Band was presented their new uniforms to wear for the first time at the Oakland-Macomb County Band and Orchestra Festival.

The uniform includes blue pants with a grey stripe down the side and jackets with a grey lapel. Blue hats with a red plume and a red citation cord arranged over the left shoulder, are accessories to the uniform.

White buck shoes were purchased by band members to wear with their attire.

White pleated skirts and a white jacket with a blue shield with a large black "B" compose the majorette outfit. Big bicorne hats with fluffy blue plumes are to be worn with the uniforms.

Band members and majorettes will wear their uniforms to all the future spring events. The Spring Concert on March 23 will be the major event.

Southfield High will add a variety of enrichment courses to its curriculum in September. Principal Robert E. Hall announced this week. To accommodate the new, non-academic courses, the school day will be lengthened four minutes and regular 60-minute classes will be shortened five minutes.

"Many of our students have requested enrichment courses that they have not been able to work into their schedule previously due to the six period day," said Hall. "Consequently, for the coming year we are prepared to offer the following enrichment program which will not carry homework nor add an extra burden on the student."

THE new enrichment courses will be in the areas of physical education, music appreciation, advanced reading, reading laboratory, art appreciation, public speaking, consumer economics, play production, stagecraft, study skills and slide rule.

FRED WEISS, radio and television personality, was invited by Mr. Daniel Julien to appear before his radio-speech class.

Mr. Weiss, who has a television show besides his disc jockey job for WXYZ, spoke to the class about radio and television opportunities.

The students of Southfield were given a surprise when Mr. Weiss read the morning announcements. In his evening show, he commented about his agreeable morning at Southfield High.
