Birmingham - Bloomfield Hills Society Notes

By JOYCE KLARR MI 6-1325

Our town is gone—real gone. At least it's being rapidly vacated as Birmingham-Bloomfield families cram their suitcases with everything from deflated beach balls, light reading matter and brownie mixes to sun-ten lotion and bathing suits. 'NEVER! our towners are strictly tank tops, suits that is! Which way to Mecca? That's the big question during these many hectic days—and the answer is—almost anywhere. (True status seekers would probably cite destination "moody," but "my dear, what does one wear there?")

The Bethel B. Kellys, the E. McCord Mahabes, Jr., and Mrs. Wessiah Wright are heading for the Farmington country club at Charlottesville, Va., and the Richard Darraghs along with their two daughters have chosen Phoenix, Ariz. as their Easter slice to the sun.

Dr. and Mrs. Luther Leader will vacation in Miami Beach with Jane and Susan.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Douglas left this week to visit their daughter and son-in-law, the James Laumans in Walnut Creek, Calif.

Mrs. Herbert Mason visited Mrs. F. G. Weed at her new winter home in Delray Beach, Fla. and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Miller are vacationing in that area now.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond F. Giffels have returned from their apartment at Riviera Beach, Fla. and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Miller are vacationing in that area now.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Ball journeyed to Lynchburg, Va., for the wedding of Ann Armitage Hamner and Joseph Kemp Houck. The bride is the daughter of the Duncan Hamners of Birmingham.

Popular spot with some of our towners is the Ingleside Inn in Palm Springs, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Hendrix are there now, as are Mr. and Mrs. Myron E. Snyder.

Litchfield Park, Ariz., marks headquarters for Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Burgess and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Winters.

Teachers Pet

A band of Derby Junior high schoolers are polishing their huarachas (remember them?) in preparation for an Easter trip to Mexico. The group includes Bob Callman, Mark Andrea, Pat Richardson, Pam Terry, Elsie Knoke, Harry Ellman, Jeff O'Neil, Vicki Kyle, Martha Russ, Christine Nordstrom, Bill Streeley, Brook Shuler, Larry Bell, Judy Cory, Bob Robertson, and Tom Jahnoke. Taking tranquilizers in large quantities are teachers Nina Oida, Dorothy Haven, Margaret Carter and Mrs. Jean Pierce.

Cranbrook's vacation trip features Williamsburg this year and the boys will be accompanied by faculty members Peter De Witt, Larry Manheart and Peter Wilson. Easter adventures include Randolph Judd, Rod Davies, John Bridge, Davis Ewing, John Livingston, Day Krolik, Mike Murchhead, William Allan, Richard O'Reilly, James Knighton, Chris Nelson, Bowie Thomas and Richard Stebens.

and Mrs. Robert Mason are in West Palm Beach and the Richard D. Andrews list the "Callonades" as their address down there.

Toro Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Richard O'Reilly flew down to Mexico city to see if what Ernest Hemingway says about bull fighting is true. (I suppose we'll know they've become aficionados if they come home with the bull's ear). They rented a car and drove over to Acapulco for two weeks where they are now fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wardrop will holiday at a ranch near San Antonio with their three daughters.

The only thought of the week I will leave with you today is "How come Elliot Ness never smiles?" He's one of the good guys, things always go his way, and while often shot at, he's seldom shot! So how come no happy face?

Oakland County Republican Mrs. Howard Liverance of Birmingham, president of the Oakland county council of Republican Women's clubs, remarked that last year the county GOP women's double that number. Guests at the luncheon will include Oakland county GOP chairman Arthur G. Elliott Jr., and John A. Gibbs, executive secretary of the Oakland GOP organization.
