Adding special glamour to the April 21 date is the fact that Mrs. Lavrakis has a letter from Vice Admiral Elton W. Grenfell, U. S. N. Commander Submarine Force, U. S. Atlantic Fleet, advising her that he will be able to attend the party.

St. Dunstan's
To Present
Popular Comedy

"The Golden Fleece", currently one of the most popular comedies in amateur theater circles, has been selected by St. Dunstan's Guild for their next presentation, opening April 7.

Earlier this season "The Golden Fleece" was presented by the Players in Detroit, and by Royal Oak's Regal Players. The original show opened on Broadway in October of 1950.

ONE OF ST. DUNSTAN'S top directors, Jerry McMechan, is in charge of the show, which involves the strictly unromantic maneuvers of a Navy Lieutenant and his cronies ashore in Venice.

Don Kiel plays the lead role of Lt. Fergie Howard, supported by Steve Saunders and Maurice Smith. The female leads will be portrayed by Mrs. Richard C. Page and Mrs. William H. Saunders. The Admiral will be played by Walter Seiver, who had the lead in St. Dunstan's popular show, "The Bloominghans Eccentrics" several years ago.

OTHER CAST members include Mrs. Garvin Bowden, Richard Allman, Lawrence Finn, and Francis Loud.

Mrs. Wesslau Wright will be Assistant Director, and Mrs. Donald Hutton is in charge of production. Mrs. Charles Himelhoch is handling props, and Mrs. Robert Scott is supervising costumes. Set design is by Mrs. John Warner, set construction by William Saunders, and lights by William Holmes.

"THE GOLDEN Fleece" will be presented at St. Dunstan's pavilion on Lone Pine Road on April 7, 8, 14 and 15, with all performances open to the public. In addition, there will be an Alpha Chi Omega benefit performance on April 15.
