

Couple Repeats Vows In Lutheran Church

Judith Ann Robinson became the bride of Charles M. Scott. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Harold Kruger at the First Lutheran Church in Fairfield, Iowa.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Robinson of Fairfield, Iowa, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Scott of Lincoln Drive, Birmingham, Michigan.

JUDITH CHOSE A gown of taffeta and re-embroidered alencon lace, designed with a portrait neckline outlined with seed pearls, fitted bodice, long tapering sleeves and a chapel train. A Swedish crown of pearls secured her finger (tip veil of silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of white roses and ivy.

Joan Robinson attended her sister as Maid of Honor. Bridesmaids were Colleen Peck of Fairfield and Mrs. Norman Heimbecker of Royal Oak.

Attendees appeared in purple silk chiffon over taffeta, ballerina length, with matching accessories. They carried bouquets of roses and stock shading from lilac to purple.

LANG EBHRLI of New York stood as best man. Ushers were Richard Green of Warren City, Larry Nelson, John Bankus and Gary Robinson of Fairfield.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs.

MRS. CHARLES M. SCOTT Robinson chose emerald green silk organza with accessories of champagne. Mrs. Scott selected mint green chiffon over crepe sheath with matching accessories.
