Leading The Upswing!
RAMBLER MARCH SALES AT ALL-TIME RECORD HIGH!

Rambler News is good! March Sales are running at an all-time record rate. That's right! More people bought Ramblers in the first third of March than in any similar period in Rambler history!

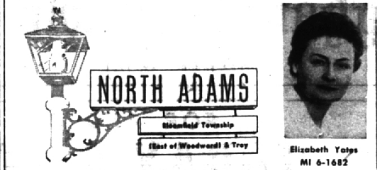

Now Is a Good Time To Buy!
 Rambler means business! Right now, Rambler dealers are out after even more sales with the kind of fair-and-square liberal deals that car buyers can't afford to pass by. Used car prices have firmed. That means your present car is worth more in trade now on a new Rambler.

Why Is Rambler Breaking Sales Records?
 Compact cars are capturing an ever-growing share of the new car market. Why does Rambler continue to hit new sales heights? Because Rambler is better than the big cars and best of the compacts. Here are the reasons:

- ONLY RAMBLER offers 3 distinct sizes of compact cars
- RAMBLER is voted most trouble-free by owners
- RAMBLER OFFERS America's lowest prices
- ALL RAMBLERS HAVE such exclusive quality features as Deep-Dip rustproofing way up to the roof... rattle-free Single-Unit construction
- Ceramic-impregnated muffler and tailpipe designed to far outlast ordinary mufflers
- RAMBLER'S RECORD ECONOMY, proved by 11 years and 35 billion owner-driven miles
- ONLY RAMBLER has a compact car for six 6-footers
- RAMBLER HAS top resale value proved by official Used Car Guides

Ask Your Neighbor About His Rambler
 He'll tell you why Rambler dealers sell twice as many compact cars per dealer as most other dealer groups. And your Rambler dealer can give you a better deal on the best of the compacts. Drive Rambler—world standard of compact car excellence!

Skiers Hurry to Slopes Before Snowfall Halts

NORTH ADAMS—The last of the snowbirds are returning home from jaunts out west and in northern Michigan. The A. W. Holcomb, of W. Orchard Hills Drive and their party of friends took a train to Alta, Utah, for three days of skiing and then on to Aspen, Colo. for ten days. Skiing in the deep heavy snow at Alta was a new experience for the Holcomb, the James Thornburn and the B. F. Chamberlains of Royal Oak and Birmingham.

In Aspen they were joined by Dr. and Mrs. Paul T. Lahl, the Garrett Mous and the Donald McGinnis of Birmingham. During their stay they viewed the down hill races of Stein Erickson, Christian Prava, Andre Moutlier, Tony Spees and many other famous skiers. Their evenings were spent dining in the old mining town restaurants and cafes that have been kept in their original state. They especially enjoyed the Crystal Palace with its wrought iron banisters and decorations of the 1900's.

Other couples there from the their days were spent touring the picturesque island with its stretches of white sand beaches. One of their side trips was taken to San Juan, Puerto Rico.

The Harry Siegels of Butternut Hill Drive returned today from a three-week cruise on the freighter, Santa Barbara. They were among the 50 passengers boarding the ship in New York on March 2 for the exciting trip.

The freighter made stops at seven ports in the Caribbean and South America giving the passengers from 6 to 24 hours for sight-seeing.

Mrs. Charles Van Norwick and daughter, Amy, of Walnut Hill Drive are back home after two weeks in Deerfield Beach, Fla. They visited Mrs. Van Norwick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Lee of Royal Oak, at their winter home.

Chuck Randau, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Randau of Far Hill Drive, is back home after two weeks in Deerfield Beach, Fla. They visited Mrs. Van Norwick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Lee of Royal Oak, at their winter home.

Paistor and Mrs. Donald Zill of Woodland Road welcomed their six-year-old newcomer, Elizabeth Anne, into their hearts and home last week.

The Harry E. Stewarts Jr. of Robinhood Road celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary at a cake and coffee party last Wednesday. They invited a relative, Miss Barbara Stewart of Lathrup, and 13 neighborhood couples from the Riverside Meadows subdivision to share in their celebration.

The Cub Scouts of Pack 1014 are putting the final touches on their miniature hand-made racers for the annual Blue and Gold Pine-wood Derby to be held Saturday at the Easterover Behm.

The N. Evansdale Road home of the Larry Engwigs will be a hive of activity on Saturday. The Cub Scouts of Pack 1014 of Harlan School will arrive at noon with their hand-made miniature racers for the "scraping-in" and "try-outs" which will last until 3 p.m.

It will be an exciting afternoon for the Cub Scouts as they have been working on their miniature racers for the past month.

The "big night" of the "big race" will be held on March 27 at the Harlan School. The races will begin at 7:30 p.m.

The first annual Hobby Show held at the Showcase, Inc. last week had an array of new and interesting hobbies on display. Attracting much attention were the miniature button gardens made by members of the Osage Garden Club. Mrs. Fred Stanfany, Mrs. E. A. Linder and Mrs. Frederick Oliver.

G. Bowden Heads Club Arrangements
 Garvin Bowden, Birmingham resident, has been named chairman of arrangements for a president's dinner, to be given by members of the Dartmouth Club of this region. The dinner will be held in Cobo Hall, Detroit, on Monday at 6 p.m. Dr. John Sloan Dickey, resident of Dartmouth College, will be the speaker. He will discuss changes and new educational programs the college has inaugurated to meet the challenges of a changing world.

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP
 "All people have an awareness of good taste," said Erica Bergshagen, "bringing this out is the secret of a happy room."

Newly associated with Bengt L. Swenson and Fritz Moltke Hof, interior architects and designers, she set up her office at Skaniahouse Design Associates, 4079 W. Maple, Bloomfield Township. Swenson is the originator and founder.

They can set one's mood," she commented. "I very often choose my ensemble by starting with my hat or a piece of jewelry and building around that."

her interest in music, deriving from her career as a concert pianist in Denmark before her marriage.

Miss Bergshagen strives to coordinate individualized expression with natural materials and she finds expression in a wide range of interests and hobbies.

HER LOVE OF beauty is implicit in the surroundings in which she works at Skaniahouse and is reflected in the serene way in which she moves and talks.

"I have always felt a need, for a sense of freedom in creating," she said.

"I don't limit ourselves in our work to any one period or type of design. We want our interiors to belong to people so they can be comfortable and them for years," she explained.

Walnut Lake Scouts Honor Area Founders

BLOOMFIELD WEST—Youthful voices blended with those of young at a Girl Scout celebration held March 14 at the Walnut Lake School to honor former area founders and to observe Girl Scout Week.

A diversified program was planned and executed by the scouts under the direction of a committee comprised of a representative from each of the eight troops.

978. Marcia DuVal of Troop 350 and Sue Robinson of Troop 355 were committee members.

Refreshments were served at a table decorated in gay yellow and green Girl Scout colors by Mrs. John Parham and Mrs. Howard Whinn's Brownie troops.

It progressed to include troop and group singing led by senior scouts Judy Bishop and Nancy Jepson, a choral reading by Troop 973 and an original dramatic skit, "Scouting Past and Future," performed by senior troop members, Chris Layman, Helen Mathew,
