

Foursome Have Fun Cruisin' Caribbean

LATHRUP — Two's company, four's even more fun. Just ask Mr. and Mrs. J. Fairbairn Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Floch, who returned March 20 from a jaunt through the Caribbean.

Sailing from New York City on the Empress of England, they visited Caracas, Venezuela; St. Thomas, Virgin Islands; Curacao; Panama City and Jamaica—with plenty of sight-seeing sandwiched in.

A day-long bus tour of Jamaica and a visit to the locks at Panama, plus 35 degree temperatures and wonderful sun tans are just a few of their memories.

Florida, as we said before, is by way of becoming a mecca for Lathrup residents. The Howard Humphreys of Rainbow Circle returned recently from three weeks of sunning and tanning and just plain restin'.

They took the trip by car, in leisurely style, and spent four days at Miami, nine days at Lauderdale and visited friends in Palm Beach.

Mrs. Ward Jenks found "really hot, unseasonable weather" during her 16 days at Ft. Lauderdale. She visited friends, saw the sights and all-in-all had a really relaxing holiday.

Mrs. Robert Raisch and her sister, Mrs. Roger P. Craton, of Auburn Heights, left Friday for the Breakers in the southern state and expect to enjoy a pleasant 12 or 13 days in Easter mood.

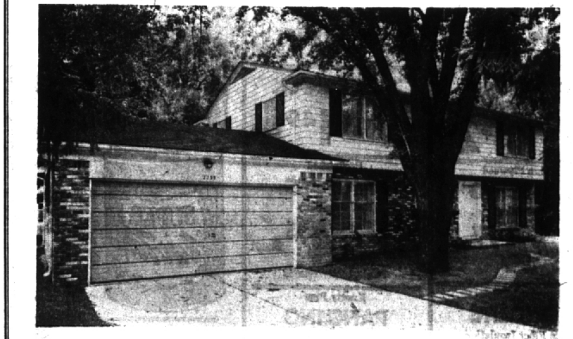

Baby Elizabeth Raisch, by the way, was christened March 12 at Christ Church Cranbrook and then played wee hostess to 25 family members and her four god parents at a buffet dinner.

And on this day of all days, the clan provided their own music with, of course, lots of "picture taking."

Question Questors

BEVERLY HILLS — Mrs. Otto Melke, 16231 Beverly, (right) and Mrs. Oliver Hanna of Dearborn admire an antique—which was Mrs. Hanna's topic recently when she spoke to local women on The Questors, a national antique study organization. At a tea sponsored by the Ponchartrain chapter at the Melke home, 10 Beverly Hills women heard about the aims and activities of the national organization. The sponsoring chapter was also represented by Mrs. Robert Cook and Mrs. Carl Kalmbach of Birmingham.

WHY WAIT TILL "TOMORROW"?

Today you can see the Colonial that realizes your dreams, including a realistic price!

Transferred family has already left their better-than-new custom home. Location is good, and so is the floor plan of the house. There is a family room, separate dining room plus big kitchen with built-in oven and range, 4 bedrooms, 2½ baths, an extra room-size, walk-in, closet.

This Colonial will satisfy the needs of a growing family — near Midvale Elementary and Seaholm School. Transfer price — $35,500.

Detroit Girl Hurt As Car Hits Rail

SOUTHFIELD — A 16-year-old Detroit girl was left by two girl friends following an accident late Saturday in which their car went out of control and crashed into a guard rail on Northwestern Highway at Pierce.

Lavern Mahman suffered multiple facial lacerations and is in satisfactory condition at William Beaumont Hospital, Susanne Little, 17, driver of the car, and another passenger, Sue Burke, 19, both of Detroit, fled the scene, police said. Susanne was ticketed for leaving the scene of an injury accident.

Little Daniel Raymond, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo R. Lenhardt of E. California Drive, arrived just a few days ahead of spring and will celebrate future birthdays on March 18. He has a big sister, Elizabeth, who is almost two and his daddy is a manufacturers' agent.

Lathrup Woman's Club is all set for its regular meeting at the House-in-the-Woods Monday with Mrs. David Ortner serving as hostess at the tea. Members of her committee are Mrs. Edward Wade, Mrs. Joseph Luckas, Mrs. John Heaton and Mrs. Joseph Doyle.

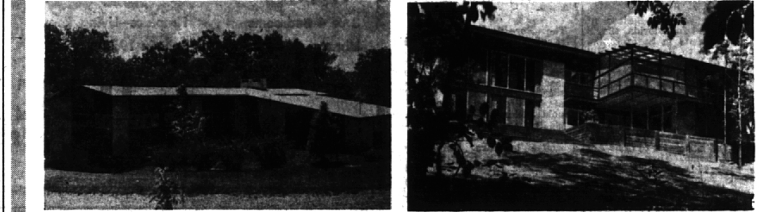

Mrs. Gerald Wicks and Mrs. Verne Blake will preside at the tea table which will be decorated in purple and white in a springtime theme. The day's speaker will be Dr. Martin H. Hoffman, medical director of St. Joseph's retreat.

Dramatically Different... for the young at heart

This home is NOT for everyone! But if your imagination is fired by a glimpse of a lake through a woodland valley... if you love the panorama of the changing seasons... if your family "tries its hand" at many activities — and needs a home designed accordingly; please read on!

On the upper level is a 21 x 21 living room with a soaring beamed and paneled ceiling. The focal point of this valley-view room is a tremendous log-burning fireplace: pure magic with falling snow outside! The appealing kitchen-family room repeats the vaulted ceiling and welcomes family and friends. It measures 24 x 21 feet and the tree-top porch (16 x 15) is reached from this room by sliding glass doors. Also on the main level: 12.6 x 19.6 master suite with private bath the stall shower is 4 x 6 feet — Mr. Ripley please note) and "Captain's Walk" balcony commanding the valley. The second bedroom is 21 feet long and there is a second full bath.

On the lower level is a 20 x 20 terrace-floored activities room with a second fireplace. There are two additional bedrooms and a third bath. A fifth bedroom can be partitioned if required. There is also an L-shaped "teen party room" 21 x 25 feet, and a handy utility room. Covered patio on this level, too!

While "you have to see it to appreciate it" may be an old cliché, it surely is true of this very special home. In the Vaughan School district it is priced at $64,000. It will be our pleasure to arrange for your early inspection. And it will open new vistas of living to you and yours!

DON'T RENT!

Not when you can move into Beverly Hills with just ten per cent down and the top F.H.A. financing available on this ranch.

Brand new carpeting is included and the owner plans to paint the exterior as soon as weather permits. Spic and span rooms include a living room with fireplace, 3 bedrooms, dining et, extra fine kitchen, and porch. Decorated in authentic early American.

Everything is on a budget level—taxes, heat cost, price $16,250.

Scandinavian Recipes Add Zest to Dinner

CRANBROOK VILLAGE — In their March 23 meeting was scheduled for the Reynolds Aluminum building.

Thomas Adams, candidate for Wayne State University's Board of Governors and resident of Bloomfield Hills, addressed the group.

About 15 boys from Boy Scout Troop LC 1245 held an overnight campout recently at Eldridge Farm Acres, near Rochester. George Realy, Scoutmaster, and one of his assistants, Perc Warner, squired the boys overnight and about four other Dads helped out during the day.

The boys meet at Lathrup Community Congregational Church on Tuesday evenings. Al Ballet is also an assistant Scoutmaster.
