BITS OF BIRMINGHAM

Area patrolmen are really on their toes as evidenced by Beverly Hills Patrolman Jerry Burden and Robert Hills and Southfield Patrolman Jerry Simmons. These three officers graduated April 25 from a 16-week, 48-hour course in scientific identification and fingerprinting and will receive a certificate from the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The classes were taught by special agent Frank J. Knobl. Incidentally, Patrolman Burden is currently studying a correspondence course in criminology.

Visitors and callers are all in a day's work for Birmingham Eccentric correspondents but Carol Darling, who covers the North Bloomfield area, came close to having one of her most surprising animated guests recently. While talking to the township editor, she leaned around her phone to open the door when she heard a scratching, assuming it was one of the Darling's pets. The squirrel who peered in, then turned tail and ran, was about as amazed at the open invitation as was his "almost-host."

Six Residents Take Honors In Bridge

Six Birmingham persons were among the winners of the master point game Monday at the Birmingham Community House. Muriel Stoddard, Geraldine Ford, Godfrey Stone, Edwin V. Clarke, Bertha Mrs. Burnette Hill, and Birmingham, and Shirley Campbell and Robert Purcutt of Royal Oak took the bridge honors. While there is duplicate bridge every Monday at 7:45 p.m. at the Community House, it is open to the public.

THE MONTHLY master point game at Forest Lake Country Club was won by Catherine Yost and Mercedes T. Siegel of Birmingham. Floyd Sayed of Birmingham with Grant Marsee of Dearborn, both life masters, won the open pair two-session event.

THE THIRD ANNUAL Great Lakes Regional is being held this week at the Durant Hotel, Flint. The men's and women's pair championship games are from 2 and 8 p.m. Friday and the mixed pair championship is from 2 and 8 p.m. Saturday. The team of four championship is 1 and 7 p.m. Sunday. There are one session events for those unable to compete in the two-session events. Referee will be awarded in all events of two sessions and sectional master points will be awarded to all single session events.

Teachers Convene At Kimball High

Twenty-one Birmingham teachers will convene with teachers from more than 600 districts in Michigan, Friday and Saturday, at the state convention of the Association for Childhood Education. The South Oakland Branch is host for the convention at Kimball High School, Royal Oak. The program will feature: Dr. Robert S. Fox, professor of education and director of the University School; Ann Arbor; Warren A. Ketcham, professor of education and psychologist at University School; Dr. Roma Gans, professor emerita, Teachers College, Columbia University, and current school consultant, lecturer, writer and speaker; and Miss Francis Martin, professor at Central Michigan University.

Explorers Hear Speech on Career In Architecture

Twenty members of M&A Explorer Post Number 1035 Monday evening heard William C. Frankenkamp, of William C. Frankenkamp Associates, Pontiac, discuss "A Career in Architecture—Its Requirements and Rewards." Frankenkamp's talk was the second in a series of scheduled visits by representatives of the various professions. Last month the teenage group learned about career opportunities in advertising from Robert S. Marker, vice president and director of creative services for MacManus, John & Adams, Inc., of Bloomfield Hills. Explorer Post, No. 1035, is sponsored by MacManus, John & Adams. It is the only post sponsored by an advertising agency.

Annex Has Birthday

Birmingham Post Office Annex, 2330 Cole, observed its second birthday Monday with cake and coffee. Cutting their portions of cake are William McHugh (left) and Douglas Smith. The annex has 20 mounted, three walking and eight parcel post routes. Awards for safe driving were presented at the birthday party by Postmaster Rollie Reese to Earl Parks, 19 years, and Homer Newman, 15 years. Parks, oldest carrier at the annex, has 25 years of service; and Cliff Hunt, supervisor, has 26.
