

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

A "Tidy" Problem

Red Dejan dropped by the Widow Parker's last week to drive her to the depot. She was leaving on her annual month-long visit with her sister.

"Land sakes the folks in this town are nice," she said. "You're the fourth person that's offered me a ride today and I've already arranged to go with Mrs. Phillips. But, Red, there is one thing you can do for me."

"You name it," says Red. "Well," she replied, "in some diplomatic way would you let my nice friends know they won't do me a favor if they come in and house-clean for me. They did last year and it took me three days to get things back to rights."

From where I sit, some folks start out with good intentions and end up interfering. We may not agree with the way our friends fix up their homes and they may not agree with our preference for beer with meals, but these are choices we each have a right to make. Respect for them is the biggest favor of all.

Narrow Escape

John S. Koger of Detroit narrowly escaped this mangled wreck recently by jumping from the truck he was driving just before it smashed into the traffic signal pole beyond the viaduct near Maple and Eton. The falling pole crushed the cab of the Cadillac Brick Co. truck and downed two other suspended traffic signals when Koger failed to stop the truck for an amber light, according to police. The truck hit a car driven by Emil W. Busch of Warren and coasted 85 feet before hitting the pole. Neither of the drivers was injured.

Resident Named Bank Director

Murray D. Van Wagener, 3839 Oakland, Birmingham, a former governor of Michigan and a consulting engineer of Detroit, has been appointed a public director of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Indianapolis.

Van Wagener

Van Wagener's term will cover the unexpired portion of a 10-year term ending Dec. 31, 1963. The Federal Home Loan Bank of Indianapolis provides reserve credit for member savings and loan associations in Indiana and Michigan.

The board of directors of the Indianapolis bank, one of eleven district banks, consists of twelve persons, eight of whom are elected by the member institutions and four appointed by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board.

The driver who uses his car to escape from reality often succeeds quite realistically.
