

Birmingham - Bloomfield Hills Society Notes

By JOYCE KLARR
MI 6-1388

THEY came, not to bury Caesar, but to praise opera. And that's exactly what happened last week at the Birmingham Bloomfield opera evening with Karl Haas. Our town's 400 turned out for the black tie, strolling soiree at the elegant Reynolds building. It was a royal event, from the purple carpeting through the masses of violets and lilacs surrounding the punch bowls to the lavender diplomatic sashes worn by the pretty usherettes.

Foamies spouting champagne rewarded thirsty culture vultures when the music met along with the minicopra Maria Gordon finished their entertaining program.

At the evening, Mrs. Theodore Yntema greeted friends in a navy blue silk sheath. Mrs. John Gordon wore a colorful chiffon, the top of which was beaded in silver and grey sequins. Her evening gown was full length, jewel red satin. Mrs. Paul McKinney was in white silk taffeta impregnated with large green roses.

MRS. FRED MATTHEW wore a yellow and white print with matching coat. Mrs. C. R. Weir's gown was soft green chiffon. Mrs. Rex Perring chose silk taffeta in shades of purple and maroon. Richard Darragh was in black embroidered with red roses.

Mrs. LeRoy Dahlberg's lavender and pink dress matched her matching sash. Mrs. George Trumbull was in a stunning gold lace. Mrs. Alexander McDonald in black lace. Mrs. Robert Erick in pink chiffon and Mrs. Richard Trick in black chiffon.

Mrs. Charles Chubbuck entertained with a luncheon at Orchard Lake country club for former Birmingham residents. Mrs. Wilson who now makes her home in Hamilton Ohio.

Mrs. and Peter Loomis have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Kapperson Barr and their two children who have been here on a visit from Burlington, Vermont.

Others seen during the lively evening were Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Lecher, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Muzay, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Fredericks, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Brewster, Mr. and Mrs. William Pollock, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Garrison, Mrs. Robert Reid.
