Gift from Birmingham Readers

Contribution of nearly 2,000 Birmingham newspaper readers, a 1961 Buick station wagon, is turned over to J. King Ward Jr., of Berkeley, president of the Oakland County Crippled Children's Society, by Matthew Cammareri, of the Birmingham Rotary Club. Rotarians raised money for the purchase of the vehicle from sale of newspapers in Birmingham last winter. Witnessing the
