E. N. Cole Addresses Honors Convocation

Edward N. Cole, 1871 Kirkway, Bloomfield Hills, vice president of the General Motors Corp., and general manager of Chevrolet motor division, spoke at Wayne State University engineering honors convocation, at which he was awarded the honorary degree of doctor of science in engineering.

Cole spoke of Michigan's "potential for industrial growth," mentioning its diversified labor, natural resources and central location giving access to raw materials and markets.

He said, a program to stimulate new industry can be furthered with stronger cooperation between education and industry.

side Birmingham School District may obtain enrollment information from James Lidde, director of the summer session, at Pembroke Elementary School.

Hospitality Day At Police Post

Michigan State Police will observe Michigan Week with open house "Hospitality Day" May 28, at all posts.

Sgt. Mike Ahlgrim, commanding officer of the Pontiac post, said visiting hours there will be from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Visitors can examine the equipment and facilities and ask questions regarding the operations of the department.

Officers will escort the visitors.

"HOSPITALITY DAY offers a special opportunity to look us over, and in past years many have done so," said Sgt. Ahlgrim.

"Those who call on us will learn about the services the State Police perform and how a post functions."

The post building is at 1295 North Telegraph, Pontiac.

An automobile accident is like marriage; once is usually enough.
