Congregational Events Stress Family Life

Special observances in recognition of National Family Life Week, May 7-14, are being celebrated at the Congregational Church of Birmingham (United Church of Christ). Designed to point out the important role which the family plays in the development of Christian personality, National Family Life Week offers an opportunity to stress various aspects of Christian responsibility. Activities begun around the 1956 theme, Family Stewardship, have been planned by the Family Life Committee, under the chairmanship of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Spinks of Royal Oak. The committee includes Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Ross, 30234 Embassy, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas V. Doane, 445 S. Glenhurst, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Marvin, 3035 C. Clunbury, all of Birmingham. THE COMMITTEE mailed educational and devotional leaflets and planned an all-church family night.
