

When all the facts of the situation are added up, it is not true that one receives back from life (in one way or another) just about what he gives? In thinking about this it can best be understood by admitting that the best good things in life are not found in the market place... so if you know an unjust person who is "loaded with dough" do you believe that "dough" alone is very rewarding?

An Evening to Remember at Meadow Brook

Gowned in Chiffon

Elegantly gowned in a Charles James creation of lemon yellow chiffon with an enormous peacock pouf of shimmering pale yellow and orange, Mrs. Gilbert Richards chats with her husband at the MSUO Scholarship Ball Saturday evening.

Trio Talk

Among the local guests attending a dinner of Lone Pine Road, Mrs. Paul Shine of Yosemite Street and Mrs. John S. French of Lahser Road, Bloomfield Hills.

Hostess

Charming as always in her role as hostess at Meadow Brook, Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson greeted guests Saturday evening in an embroidered yellow silk chiffon gown. The public Gala Ball was held to raise scholarship funds for MSUO students.

Derby Day at Open Hunt

It was Derby Day at Bloomfield Open Hunt and Mrs. James F. Pedder of Cranbrook Road, Bloomfield Hills, and Mr. and Mrs. William H. Burlingame of Oakhills Drive, Birmingham. Mr. Pedder is president of the Club.

Saturday Night at Plum Hollow

Among the couples attending a "Shake Down Party" for members and guests at Plum Hollow Golf Club Saturday evening were (from left) Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Swigert of Huntington Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Reeves of Columbus, Ind., and Mr. and Mrs. Roache A. Finnigan of San Diego, Lathrup Village.

Time Out for Relaxing

Relaxing in the lobby at Plum Hollow Golf Club Saturday evening during "dance breaks" were (from left) Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Russ Jr., of Williamsbury Road, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Russell E. McKinney of Stellamar Drive, Birmingham. Mrs. Russ was celebrating her birthday at the clubhouse.

Torch Drive Leaders

John L. Sterling, 871 N. Glenhurst, Birmingham, president of the board of the Big Brothers of Oakland County, chats with (standing) Mrs. Roy Fruehauf and (sitting left) Mrs. Matthew Cammareri of S. Adams Road and Mrs. Garvin Bawden Jr. of Gordon Lane, Birmingham, prior to a talk given by Mr. Sterling at the Fruehaufs' home last week. The Middlebelt Road estate was opened last Thursday to some 40 Torch Drive leaders from Birmingham.

Suburban Scene

By Shirley Adams
Society Editor

Ball at Wilson's Estate

The Rochester home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson was open to the public for the first time Saturday evening. Every couple—men in white tie, women in long, swirling-skirted gowns meant $100 for MSUO scholarships.

Mrs. Wilson, gowned in yellow silk chiffon, stood with her husband and the ball's co-chairmen, Mrs. William T. Gossett and Mrs. R. Jamison Williams, and their husbands in the drawing room to greet each guest.

MRS. WILLIAMS appeared in a rose beige draped chiffon gown and Mrs. Gossett, who established the four-year Charles Evans Hughes scholarship at MSUO in memory of her father, the Supreme Court Chief Justice, chose a blue satin gown.

Cocktails were served in the downstairs games room where Al Navarro's band played for dancing. Mrs. Gilbert Richards, committee member, looked very elegant in a gown of yellow chiffon. Mrs. H. Richard Steding also chose a floor-length gown of yellow chiffon with silver beaded bodice. Mrs. Raymond Perring was in shell pink satin; Mrs. E. C. Matthews in floral printed silk; Mrs. Warren S. Booth appeared in soft pink satin with a tuck panel of complementing orchid.

AMONG THE OTHERS in this gala throng were the Irving Duffys, Graham John Gramms, West Gallagors, Chancellor and Mrs. B. Varner, the Semon Knudsens, John Stevensons, Theodore Yntemas, James Zeders, Howard McGregors, Robert Taylors, Harry Joneses, Don Ahrensens and Harold Fitzgeralds.

Mrs. Fruehauf Entertains

The beautiful Middlebelt Road estate of Mrs. Roy Fruehauf, Bloomfield Township, was opened last Thursday afternoon to some 40 Torch Drive leaders from Birmingham and Bloomfield. As part of a tri-county public relations and educational program sponsored by the US Women's Organization, Mrs. Fruehauf was one of 37 hostesses opening their homes to the UFWO during the month of May.

MRS. FRUEHAUF'S guests of honor and speakers for the afternoon's program were Mrs. Garvin Bawden Jr., 397 Gordon Lane; and John L. Sterling, 871 N. Glenhurst Drive, who is president of the board of the Big Brothers of Oakland County. Among Mrs. Fruehauf's many guests were Mrs. Joseph C. Dodge of Suffield Road, Mrs. Charles Hilton of Westwood, Mrs. Clyde Bennett Jr., of Westwood, Mrs. Hans Schjoelin of Stonebrook Lane, Mrs. Thomas Van Degrift Jr., of Villa; Mrs. Lillard Schmidt of Penitence and Mrs. Frank Atkinson of Ravine.

Other hostesses in the series are Mrs. John Blanchard of Lone Pine Road, Mrs. William Gossett of Goodhue Road, Mrs. Ben D. Mills of Vaughan Road, Mrs. John F. Gordon of Rathmore Drive, Mrs. Raymond Perring of Yarboro and Mrs. M. M. Burgess of Country Club Drive. Co-hostesses with Mrs. Burgess is Mrs. Harry W. Anderson of Ann Arbor.

Couple Weds in England

A couple who met in the United States two years ago were married at Holy Trinity Parish Church, Sutton Coldfield (near Birmingham, Warwickshire, England) on April 29. The bridegroom is David George Fisher, the younger son of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Fisher of Cranbrook Road, Birmingham. His bride is Janet Meynell Nicholas, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth H. Nicholas of Four Oaks, in the Royal Town of Sutton Coldfield. The Provost of Birmingham, the Very Rev. H. G. M. (See SUBURBAN SCENE, Page 4-C)