

Learn to Ride at Oak Knoll Farm

Equitation, Dressage and Show Riding Taught by Instructors of Champions

Oak Knoll Farm, adjacent to Kensington Park near Milford, is one of Michigan's most modern and best equipped horse farms dedicated to breeding, training and boarding show horses and teaching riders, young and old alike, the fundamentals of riding and horsemanship.

Instruction in equitation and show riding is under the direction of Miss Dawn Atlas, formerly of Fantasy Farm Stables, Michigan City, Ind. Her students have won many championships in various age groups.

Frank Nuccio, Oak Knoll Farm manager, has trained and presented champion horses in many Eastern and Midwestern Shows.

Oak Knoll Farm is a 44-acre training ground. School horses are three-gaited, five-gaited and fine harness.

Recreation Round-Up

ADULT SOFTBALL LEAGUE: Anyone interested in entering a team or playing as an individual in the recreation department adult softball league should call the recreation office, MI 4-1900. Deadline for registration is Wednesday. League play will begin the first week in June.

SUMMER SWIMMING CLASSES: Advance registration will be required for the summer swimming classes for elementary school age children. Classes begin the week of June 19 at Seaholm, Derby and Bartram pools. Information sheets have been sent to the schools. Registration will be taken in person at the Eton Park shelter building, Eton and Lincoln, from June 5 to June 9, 1 to 5 p.m. Pool schedule will be available at the registration desk.

SENIOR MEN'S CLUB: Birmingham Senior Men's Club opened its usual Friday meeting with a prayer by its new chaplain, Harold V. Godfrey. Following the salute to our flag and singing popular songs, two new members were accepted. They are Karl Werder, 910 North, and R. N. Raube, 759 N. Woodward.

An invitation was received by the club of the Village Players to attend the comedy "Henrietta." Future date for the annual club picnic was set for August 11 at Pontiac Yacht Club and August 18 for the yearly party held at the home of Mrs. Gould.

The feature of the meeting was a presentation by General Electric's Andrew Tompke, Jr., showing the great strides now being made in automation.

After lunch the discussion group discussed the advisability of everyone going to college, while six tables of duplicate bridge were played in the cardroom.

Tonite for discussion on Friday will be "Is the press giving too much information for the good of the country?" Feature entertainment will be a film on breaking sound barriers in airplanes.

Fish in Florida

Dr. and Mrs. James F. Pearce, 1227 Romney, Bloomfield Township, had quite a time fishing recently in Florida. While at Ft. Lauderdale the Pearce party greatly decreased the population of Amberjack. Dr. Pearce caught the largest one weighing 48 pounds.
