

Bride Wears Gown Of White Taffeta

Gowned in white bouquet taffeta, Lovina Danforth became the bride of John H. Peddie III Saturday evening at Drayton Avenue Presbyterian Church. The double ring ceremony was performed in the presence of 350 guests by Dr. H. P. Sloan.

The bride's gown featured a cummerbund of seed crystals and pearls which formed a double loop bow. A pearl Swedish crown secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a colonial arrangement of carnations, stephanotis and ivy.

FOLLOWING a honeymoon in Miami Beach, the young couple will reside in Birmingham.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Danforth of

MRS. JOHN PEDDIE III

Ferndale. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Peddie of Detroit.

Honor attendant was Mrs. Donald Bennett and bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Morrison, JoAnn Lotz, Kathryn Higgins and Nancy Koch.

THEIR DRESSES were nice green nylon over taffeta with matching a t'n cummerbunds. Headresses were small Dior bows with small veils. They carried baskets of pink carnations, acacia, heather and cascades of ivy.

Joseph Colucci stood as best man and seating the guests were Lee Vilasie, James Hadley, Gerald McGinnan, Donald Ridler and Thomas Freling.

Judith Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bennett, served as flower girl.

MRS. DANFORTH chose a green silk lace over taffeta with matching hat of taffeta. Mother of the bridegroom selected a champagne silk sheath with matching jacket. Both mothers had cybidium orchids.
