

Founders' Day At Cranbrook

Founders' Day at Cranbrook will be held this year on May 21 and will follow the custom set by the Founders, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Booth of setting aside a Sunday in May to entertain the graduates of Cranbrook's four schools.

In addition, this year the tea in Cranbrook House from 3 to 6 p.m. will be Leslie Winter, who retires the end of this school year as Headmistress of Brookside School Cranbrook after 39 years of association with the school.

THE DAY begins with a service of rededication at 11:15 a.m. in Christ Church Cranbrook. The Founders' Day address will be given by the Rev. Gerald B. O'Grady Jr., rector of Christ Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scripps Booth will host the tea in Cranbrook House. Hostesses will be Mesdames Jervis McMechan, James Bessford, LeRoy Dahlberg, Theron Vanhosen, Harry Hoy, William Casey, John Giray Jr., Zoltan Seneshy, John Shephard, Alan Joslin, Carleton McCain Jr., and Miss Marion Goodale.

B'ham Accepts Bid For Paving Project

Birmingham city commissioners Monday night accepted the low bid of $26,606.98 for the 1961 alley paving project.

Included in the contract are construction of concrete pavement for the alley on the east side of Woodward from Ruffner to Sheffield and widening of the northeast corner of Southfield and Lincoln.

The low bid was submitted by Edward R. White, Berkley.

DUE TO a request from property owners along the alley, construction will not be started until after July 2.

Work on the intersection is expected to start in two weeks. Completion of both projects is scheduled for Sept. 2.
