W. Beverly Couple Goes 'Round World in 90 Days'

WEST BEVERLY—It took 90 days for the Orrin Gulleya to round the world, but they weren't out to win any bets. The Riverside couple eked only on seeing everything—and anyone who sees their color slides will give odds they did!

The Gulleya joined their tour in Hawaii on Feb. 6. The two-dozen travelers (some Detroiters, but mostly Californians) went from there to Japan and then on to Formosa, Hong Kong, the Philippines, Saigon, Viet Nam, Cambodia, India, Egypt, Israel, Athens and finally Rome. Then, having toured Europe other years, they flew to London and home.

And that's but a rough sketch of their itinerary. Their most vivid impressions? Poverty, dirt and amusing contrasts. In India, where they spent 21 days, they went from 105 degree heat on the coast to 40 degrees in the mountains. They saw fabulous temples but recalled especially the ruins in Seim-Riep, Cambodia, dating from 1300. Malaya impressed them perhaps the cleanest, most progressive, friendliest country; the United Arab republics, the most hostile.

Though they returned a little over a week ago, the Gulleya have viewed many of their pictures and ready, since they mailed them back to the States for processing as they finished each roll.

The Herman Friedmans ended their Lakeland, Fla. vacation almost a month ago, but Warwick hasn't seen much of them. He has already made two flying trips to the Capitol to confer on food distribution for depressed areas (he's the Detroit chairman), while she practically camped at Cranbrook helping with the Christ Church rummage sale.

Last weekend, Mrs. Friedman was in Lansing to attend the Mother's Day dinner with Carol who wears the Gamma Phi Delta ring as this year's most outstanding pledge.

The S. S. Bartons arrived Monday for their first real week with their former neighbors since they moved to Springfield, Vt. Naturally, they're guests of his sister, Mrs. L. E. Bernarini of Birwood but old friends did most of the party planning.

Mrs. George Dottlinger of Hillcrest has 12 at today's bridge luncheon, and Dr. and Mrs. Art DeRosier of Bedford are giving a dinner in their honor tomorrow night.

The A. G. Fahrman of Saxon Drive could rest on their children's laurels, but they chose Harbor Springs last weekend instead. Jim they heard, was named best-dressed at Ferris, while Mary Liz was star in a Mother's Day horse show in Kansas.

Junction City officials invited her when they saw her and Susan foot take first and second ribbons on the high fences in a Mary-

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Teacher Learns a Lesson

Fuzzy Goodwin may hold a half-dozen important positions around town—chairman of the school board included—but he's still the same modest fellow that I grew up with.

At the last PTA meeting, Fuzzy made a point of getting together with some new teachers. One of them, a lady with some strong ideas about education claimed that none of the others had gone to the right college—hers.

"Well, Miss, that isn't so bad," Fuzzy told her. "One of our board members didn't even go to high school. Let alone college." "Not Who?" she said. "Me," he said.

From where I sit, some of us want people to be carbon copies of ourselves. But that just isn't the American way. Our heritage of freedom implies the right to be different, even in little things—like your choice of tea or coffee and my preference of a glass of beer. I say "be yourself" and "no studying up" to be like each other.

mount competition. School's out early enough in June for Mary Liz to ride for the Bloomfield Hunt in the Detroit horse show.

Kudos for the Ryden girls of Riverdale, too. Sally received not only a U of M scholarship on National Honor Society achievements, but a national merit scholarship and a Betty Crocker future home-maker award as well. And Alicia was tapped only yesterday at Groves Junior Honor Society ceremonies.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Shilson of Ingleswood were hosts at a dinner last Friday honoring recently retired Gerald and Mrs. Carlisle of Birmingham. Other guests were the Earl Conlons, also of Birmingham, and the Joe Schofield of Dearborn.

West Beverly WNPGeAs are joining North Suburban garden club members for the May 25 program at the Community House in place of their regular monthly meeting. The 1 p.m. program features a lecture by the Williamsburg flower arranger.

VALLEY WOODS—Mrs. Robert C. Beeler of Eastland returned last week from Jamaica with a deep tan and an enviable collection of mahogany carvings. Miss Marie Marino of Detroit was with her on the three-week jaunt which also included Nassau, Haiti, Puerto Rico.

Former Firestone-star Barbara Gibson (now Mrs. Sam Williams) recommended "Aida" as the best of the Met coming to Detroit, so the C. A. Halls are attending with the Williams, the Alistair McIntoshes and the John Luckases of Detroit and Pontiac. The friends are gathering on Kennoway Circle for cocktails before going on to the May 26 performance.

This next weekend though it strictly stag, "Celtic and Randy" are camping out with the Troquois tribe—Indian Guide redesigns.

The R. A. Roberts are back of Bellevue Court almost two weeks now, but scattered from a month of sunning on Vero Beach, Palm Beach and Lauderdale look dark as ever.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Ellis Jr took their kids out recently to drive around the lake for a visit with her parents in Madison, Wis.

EAST BEVERLY—Two east-side couples have set the coming year for their annual trek to Lost Lake Woods country club; the Frank R. Suitsgroves and Paul Suitsgroves of Eastland and the Robert Sudz and Larry Marchetta of Auburn.

The Floyd Breughals of Lochevie had a weekend at Niagara Falls in early May when he judged her trials near Buffalo, N.Y.

With their former home so close, the Arthur Roomeys of Elizabeth still see a lot of Toledo friends, east weekend they drove to Ohio for a party while June 2, four of their friends are coming here for the Moxley ball.

Around the corner on Pierce, Ann Currier had 13 friends for her birthday luncheon—one for every year she's celebrating.

The Sunday after Jim's first communion at Our Lady Queen of Martyrs, the James O'Learys of Marguerite had 35 for a buffet dinner. Two doors down, Nancy Henshaw had 11 friends for cake and ice cream after the children's Mass.

The Legrande Whiteneys of Georgia made business a pleasure when she flew with him to Washington, D.C. for a week. They returned from the Capitol Monday.

Mrs. John M. Barich of Amherst joined the parent weekends at Lansing to attend the Delta Gamma Mother's Day luncheon with Beverly Ann.

SOUTH BERKSHIRES—The Anthony Foleys of Vernon drive were here to celebrate Christine's 15 years at a family party, and another for friends, but they'll be in Wisconsin shortly to see Dennis graduate from Canby, the Jesuit High School in Prairie du Chien.

The Maurice V. Rogers of Woodhaven are glad to be back after only one day home in the past two months. They spent May in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and April out West seeing Scottsdale and the Grand canyon and "Mad" Las Vegas. Sue, a freshman at the University of Colorado, flew to Florida from Boulder to be with them on spring vacation.

The Phillip Shields of 18 mile stayed in Florida till it was really warm in the village, Palm Beach was their home for four months this winter.

Reflective Invitation

WESTCHESTER—Mrs. Byron Terice Jr., president of the Westchester branch WNPGeA, watches as Mrs. Boris Osojnak puts the last touches on her interpretation of "Rain Reflections," entered in a recent flower exhibit. Mrs. Osojnak is general chairman of the branch's coming "Invitation to Spring" flower show Monday from 7-11 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Gene Piefer, 594 Roanoke. The group's annual meeting, at the Piefer residence, will follow an open house for Westchester residents from 7 to 8 p.m.
