R. P. Barnard Joins Patent Law Firm

Richard P. Barnard, 26580 Wellington, Franklin, a member of the Birmingham Board of Education, has joined the patent law firm of Winnie & Hopkins in Birmingham. The firm has been revised under the name of Winnie & Barnard and has added John D. Nies of Washington, D. C. as an associate.

Barnard was formerly patent counsel for General Motors Corp. and was responsible for the 1916 for the Rochester Products, power development, Euclid, Cadillac Lamp and other divisions.

Prior thereto he served as assistant manager of the Washington, D. C. office of the GM patent section and had responsibility for direct negotiations with the U. S. Patent Office.

Barnard is a member of the Birmingham Athletic Club, a founder of the Franklin Great Books, and is presently a member of the Franklin Charter Revision Committee.

DALE A. WINNIE, 135 Chewton, Bloomfield Township, was also formerly with the General Motors patent section, serving as patent counsel for the Chevrolet and research divisions before his departure in 1957.

Both men are members of the Michigan and American Patent Bar Associations, the Michigan and American Bar Associations, admitted to practice before the U. S. Patent Office and the Boards of Appeal, all the courts of Michigan and the U. S. Supreme Court.

Barnard is presently chairman of the American Bar committee on confidential rights of contractors with the government.

Hill Presents Scholarship

Merritt D. Hill, 905 E. Glenarry Circle, Bloomfield Township, recently presented a scholarship on behalf of the Ford Motor Co.'s Tractor and Implement division, Birmingham, to a Winter Haven, Fla. man.

The scholarship consists of an expense-paid nine-week period at division installations in Birmingham, Highland Park, and Des Moines, Iowa.

According to Hill, the special program at these locations will acquaint Ernest W. Revels Jr. with all aspects of the division's operations.

HE WILL spend several days in production operations, product planning, engineering, market research, finance and sales departments.

Revels, a zone manager for Florida Ford Tractor Co., Jacksonville, was selected from among 50 outstanding zone managers.

Two Men Appointed

James E. O'Connor, 2521 Yorkshire, Birmingham, and Don E. Clair, 1539 Cheltenham, Birmingham, have been appointed to the sales staff of a Philadelphia, Pa. pharmaceutical concern, Wyeth Laboratories. Both men will have their headquarters with Wyeth in Detroit.
