Reciprocal presentation of Girl Scout pins for service by Mrs. Charles H. Lindner and her daughter, Ellen, highlighted the Midvale School court of awards.

Girl Scouts Honor Mother and Daughter

Girl Scouting in the family for a combined 15 years culminated in a twin bill attraction for a Birmingham mother and daughter. Both starred in the Midvale School court of awards May 17.

Mrs. Charles H. Lindner, 600 Wellesley, pinned her daughter, Ellen, for five years of Girl Scouting. Ellen awarded Mrs. Lindner with a pin for 10 years of volunteer work as a troop leader and organizer.

OTHER FIVE-YEAR PINS for Scouting went to Janice Blihl, Jan Fry, Diane Johnson, Gretchen Kuth and Diane Rozema. They and Ellen Lindner were promoted to first class in Scout Troop 379. Their leader is Mrs. Walter L. Fry Jr.; co-leader, Mrs. Lindner.

Troop 341 members, Donna Epperson, Peggy Furwirth, Peggy Gage, Julia Hutchins and Debbie Savage, opened the court of awards with the flag ceremony.

OTHER fifth-grade Scouts of troop 341 are Carol Angerman, Linda Jo Bush, Linda Frost, Martha Hook, Sally Hutchins, Sally MacAdam, Chris Patrick, Karen Richards, Merrily Rogers, Marsha Went and Debbie Wolff. Troop leader is Mrs. Arnold E. Hook, assistant leader, Mrs. John F. Patrick.

A novelty song, using rhythmic sticks, was presented by Brownie Troops 344 and 346. Troop 344 includes Patricia Dawson, Sheryl Farnham, Nancy Fry, Kathleen Moore, Candace Rogers, Lisa Rumsey, Jane Shre-

Barnum Junior High Springtime Dance Features Decor In French Mood

By KAREN L. PHEL
Special Writer

Barnum's Student Council sponsored an all-school dance, "Springtime in Paris," which took place in the cafeteria on Friday. Entertainment was provided by the Esquires.

Decorations included a large mural with a spring scene in Paris and travel posters hung on the walls to complete the French atmosphere.

BARNUM'S MUSIC department has been rehearsing during the past few weeks for the various spring festivals and concerts. On May 16, hand I and hand II, under the direction of Mr. Hanson and the orchestra, led by Mr. Bartlett, participated in the annual spring concert.

The spring choral concert took place on Tuesday. Miss Evelyn Mitchell led the eighth and ninth grade girls' choirs in several separate numbers and in one combined selection, "The Song of Music." The eighth and ninth grade boys' choirs sang under the direction of Mr. William Seaback.

On June 1, these groups will take part in an all-school choral concert to be held at Seaholm High School.

B'FIELD COUNTRY DAY SCHOOL Weather Just Right For Strawberry Fete

By CAROL BLODGETT and PAULA GOODMAN
Special Writers

The weather prophet came through with his promise of a wonderful day to make the Strawberry Festival, at BCDS on May 15, the gala and profitable occasion the Mothers' and Dads' Clubs had hoped for.

A variety of wares from home and abroad were on sale in the colorful canopied booths. Visitors might choose from the "Thieves' Den"; pretty aprons and scarves; foreign imports; and farm and garden products; rides on a patient pony or in Mrs. Nathan Shayer's bright pink Fiat Jolly; or jumps on the trampoline, balloons, hats, lollipops, ice cream, pop and popcorn were attractions for the children.

MRS. N. B. CARROLL, who delights in cooking unusual dishes, used her imaginative ideas to plan a tempting buffet lunch which was served in the dining room. Huge strawberries hung from the ceiling to enhance the festive arrangement of dainty pastries and steaming dishes on the buffet tables.

Festival decorations for both the dining room and booths were designed and made by art instructor Mrs. James Siddall, and her students. During the luncheon hour, students modeled fashions from Penny Pinchers in Franklin. The girls had been schooled in the techniques of modeling by Mrs. G. William Russell.

niques of modeling by Mrs. G. William Russell.

CHARMING in her strawberry frock, Mrs. J. D. Richardson, chairman of the event, kept everything running smoothly Saturday just as she had previously done in planning and correlating the work of the numerous committees. Mrs. Gunnar Karlstrom worked closely with Mrs. Richardson in arranging publicity.

Working with the students at the children's booths and in scheduling hours for the students to help were Mrs. Douglas S. Ferguson and Mrs. Robert C. McNutt. Mothers and faculty alike dotted strawberry aprons to assist at the various booths.

Miss Marjorie Sallis enjoyed the novelty of being headwaitress for the day instead of headmistress. Dads were kept busy parking cars and directing the stream of traffic to and from the school.

MANY OF THE students at BCDS are planning to attend the opera, "La Boheme," which will be presented by the Metropolitan Opera Company at the Masonic Temple on Saturday.

Carl Karapetian, conductor of the International Symphony, Port Huron, visited the school on Wednesday and talked to the girls about the characteristics and background of opera and of "La Boheme" in particular.
