

Wing Lake Brownies Take Weekend Trip

WING LAKE — Brownie Troop 688 of Wing Lake School recently spent a weekend at Greenfield Village. The highlight of the trip was a barbeque on Friday after dinner at Clinton Inn.

The girls who made the trip were Carol Askew, Janet Chmiel, Debbie Carothers, Diane DuVal, Christy Jones, Kim Nielsen, Susan Owens, Cheryl Perlman, Ellen Rothwell, Danielle Smith, Jane Sewell, Gayle Shaffer, Lee Chamberlain, Jerri Bran, Sharon Butler and Darlene Dunn.

ACCOMPANYING THE GIRLS were their leaders, Mrs. George Shaffer and Mrs. Philip Rothwell and two troop mother chaperones, Mrs. Daniel Smith and Mrs. R. B. Jones.

The troop will conclude its activities this year by taking part in the Bloomfield Lakes County Awards on June 4 at the Bloomfield Hills Junior High.

Brownies Meet With New Members

BLOOMFIELD NORTH — Brownie Troop 486 of Conant School had a special meeting last week and invited girls of the second grade who would like to become Brownies this fall to attend.

Troop leaders Mrs. Bradley Radtke and Mrs. Ted Duncan had handicrafts on display that the Brownies had made this past school year. After refreshments, several games were played.

WALNUT LAKE — All elementary youngsters in the Walnut Lake School area, regardless of school zoning, will be able to participate in America's favorite sport.

The Walnut Lake School PTA will sponsor a summer basketball league on the school grounds at 10 a.m. every Saturday.

Father Vice President Bob Magnus could use more fathers as adult assistants.

The league will continue through August, possibly increasing the six teams to eight.

No previous arrangement is necessary.

WALNUT LAKE — Albert Schuman, principal of Walnut Lake School, and his wife Margie have good reason to be proud these days: They are the parents of a son, born April 22. The little fellow signs in as Steven.

WALNUT LAKE — Sixty-five scout units representing more than 2,000 Boy Scouts and Explorers are putting the finishing touches on their exhibits for the seventh annual Ottawa District Scout-O-Rama, which begins Saturday.

Location will be the Walnut Lake Senior High School. More than 250 adult leaders will also take part.

Troop 41 from Walnut Lake will publish the official newspaper for the Scout-O-Rama. The troop, along with Pack 41 from Walnut Lake, has the honor of "Communications" as its theme.

BRAS — Mr. and Mrs. George McIntyre of Old Orchard Drive were host to seven couples before the recent Charis Club dance at the Pine Lake Country Club.

After the dance, Mr. and Mrs. Neale Schermerhorn entertained the same people for an early hour breakfast.

The couples besides the Schermerhorns and McIntyres were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Louden, Mr. and Mrs. H. George Sims, Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Carey, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Bergman, Mr. and Mrs. Don Ditz and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wagner.

HER FIANCE, son of Mrs. Johanna Moorcroft of West Berlin, Germany, and the late Mr. Bernstein, was graduated cum laude from Harvard, where he was made a member of Hasty Pudding-Institute of 1970. He has been studying for two years at Columbia and is now a candidate for the doctorate in International Relations.

A late June wedding in Hill Chapel of Smith College is planned.

ELEANOR HAUSER

Eleanor Hauser To Wed in East

Mr. and Mrs. Robert V. Hauser of Ferndale announce the engagement of their daughter, Eleanor, to Thomas Bernstein of Ithaca, N.Y.

The bride-elect was graduated from Kingswood School Cranbrook and cum laude from Smith College. Her junior year was spent studying in Paris and at the University of Geneva, Switzerland. She has been working in New York this past year and taking post graduate studies at Columbia University.

PTO Meets to Elect Board, Officers

WING LAKE — The Wing Lake School PTO held a general meeting and election of officers April 24.

New board members are Dr. and Mrs. George Sewell, president; Mr. and Mrs. Grov DeVal, president-elect; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur King, treasurer; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Holl, recording secretary; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carrier, corresponding secretary; Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas, program; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Kix, membership; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bergum, hospitality.

They also wished bon voyage to the school principal, Mrs. Geneva Forslund who is leaving June 10 for Europe. The reception was held at the Wing Lake road home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carrier.

New furniture is now in the school lobby: The purchase of this furniture was the main project for the PTO this year.

THE OUTGOING BOARD members gave a reception Tuesday honoring the new board members, principal and teachers of Wing Lake school.

Foxcroft Women Hold Progressive Luncheon, Bridge

FOX CROFT — "One Last Thing" before school vacation begins was the theme of a progressive luncheon, cocktails and bridge given yesterday by Mrs. Robert Haefner, Mrs. Wright Hitt and Mrs. R. H. Smith all of Valley Forge Road.

Twenty-four guests went to Mrs. Wright Hitt's for cocktails. Mrs. Robert Haefner had luncheon and bridge at the home of Mrs. R. H. Smith.

Arriving on Mother's Day to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Burnett of Tanglewood Court were Mrs. Burnett's parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Metz from W. Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Daring of Woodland Pass, had houseguests this past week. Their guests were Mrs. Daring's father and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Daring who formerly lived in Wing Lake School.

They were traveling from their winter home in Indian Lake Estates, Fla., and after a five day visit with son and family drove on to their summer place at Bear Lake, Mich.

Everyone recalls Excelsior dining set ads — because they're packed with bargain items every week.

Walnut Lake School To Hold June 3 Fair

WALNUT LAKE — There are big plans being made for the June 3 annual Walnut Lake School Fair. "Civil War centennial" is the theme with S. C. Phillips as chairman. Baby sitting services will be provided by Girl Scouts under the direction of Mrs. Mack Pittard.

THE OLD-FASHIONED country store will be chartered by Beth Jackson. She has planned to have a lake sale, penny candy for the small fry and things for a coffee break-cracker barrel style.

Ed Way will be in charge of the games. Children will be encouraged to participate in singular and participation games of all kinds, including Huckleback and the fish pond. If they have extra energy, they can even "dig for gold."

Ted Jacques, chairman of prizes, says there will be surprises for the lucky winners because of the generosity of the local merchants.

DICK TEAGUE will have an unusual array of old cars, including a 1930 Stutz and a 1929 Dodge touring car.

Hot dogs, chips, soft drinks and cotton candy will be available at the hot dog stand run by Curtis Whittlesey.

Others on the committee with Phillips are Dick Sims as treasurer; Walter Meads, art director; Harry O'Drourke, purchasing; Don Ditz, publicity.

BRAS — A cocktail party May 14 at the Don Irwin home on Westmoor Road proved to be a small United Nations.

Nineteen countries were represented.
