

"Roaring 20's" Theme Chosen by Bowlers

WESTCHESTER — The Westchester Bowling League had their annual "wind up" party recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Mueller on Cranbrook Road.

It had a Reno casino atmosphere with gaming tables for fun and prizes. The "roaring 20's" was the theme for the evening and all of the guests came dressed in what was their conception of clothes worn by underworld figures in those days.

The men wore striped blazers and straw hats. The ladies put lots of fringe and fake fur on their clothes and then added the final touch of long cigarette holders.

THE FACSIMILES of Al Capone and "his lady" (1) were seated on the tables and won an appropriate gift of "cook-out" apron, hat and protective gloves.

One of the guests took colored numbers from the sitting evening and sometime soon they will relive the wonderful time by getting together and seeing it on film. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mease were one of the high trophy winners.

Reunions are always fun, but according to Mrs. Milton B. Ricketts of Peoples Lake, the best kind are the "get re-acquainted kind".

Mrs. Ricketts entertained five Ohio women, recently. These women, including the hostess, knew each other when they all lived in Akron together and have remained friends ever since.

Enjoying Mrs. Ricketts' hospitality at cocktails and luncheon were Mrs. Mike Malone from Chardon Falls, Mrs. Ken Fietz, Brekleville, Ohio, Mrs. Richard Humberger, from Gate Mills, Ohio, Mrs. E. Broedovore and Mrs. William Shutt from Cleveland. There were two new local friends invited for good measure, Mrs. Anthony Keros, from Westchester Village and Mrs. Paul Clements of Birmingham Farms.

FRANKLIN WOODS — You don't have to go to Louisville to enjoy the Kentucky Derby, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oppman of Pickering Road entertained at a "Derby" party the day "the horses ran".

To add zest and feeling while the guests watched the Derby on television, the Oppmans served mint juleps in "the ole" Kentucky manner.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burton, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bequet and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pulliam. Others having fun too, were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Marsh, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Higley and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Adler.

MRS. HIGLEY'S horse was cooperative and made her high jumper, Bequet was third. After the excitement over one settled down to a buffet dinner which was enjoyed by the happy neighborhood group.

Mrs. Walter Burton of Pickering Road doesn't feel that brides have a monopoly on bridal showers and so decided to have a "groom shower" for Jack Kozma who will be married to Mrs. Sharon Swartz later in the season. It turned out that Mrs. Burton was right because every one enjoyed the idea very much.

First the guests were served cocktails and hors d'oeuvres. A period of time was spent giving the groom-to-be many bits of sage advice before he was finally allowed to open his gifts. He found them unique in that they were all from a man would use for equine equipment, cards and poker chips were three examples.

BLOOMFIELD FARMS — The Bloomfield Farms branch WNFCA met at the home of Mrs. W. P. Kozma, recently at the home of new board of officers for the coming year.

Mr. Harry White will assume the chair as president. Her vice president will be Mrs. Fred Rudolph, treasurer, Mrs. Theodora Guarnieri, recording secretary, Mrs. Jack Houghton, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Charles Loyd and publicity chairman, Mrs. Tyler Perkins.

The club recently organized a horticulture group and on Wednesday members were urged to bring good, sturdy, and hearty perennial plants to the home of Mrs. Jack Houghton, 6850 Inkster Road, by 10 a.m. These plants will be used for horticulture therapy work at the Pontiac State hospital.

MEADOWLAKE — "See America First" has been converted to "See California First" by the Clyde Fultons of Meadowlake Road who spent over a month touring and visiting every village, town and city in California.

Five days were spent in Palo Alto, with a daily trip to San Mateo where they got together with old Meadowlake friends, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Burkhardt. The Fultons and the Burkhardts found something different to do, or explore every day.

One heavenly week was spent viewing and lounging at one of the famous inns in Laguna Beach.

One of the highlights of the trip was a cocktail party given for them by former Meadowlake residents Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moss in Kentville. Bob Davison, a Meadowlake resident, was a pleasant surprise guest.

Mrs. J. F. Kennedy Named President

A subunit of sorages will welcome the president's lady by Mrs. J. F. Kennedy and her fellow officers assumed their new duties at a luncheon and cocktail party yesterday at Western Golf Club.

OFFICERS receiving corsages from the subunit were Mrs. C. A. Ferritta, president - elect; Mrs. Douglas Kaump, vice president; Mrs. F. G. Nolta, treasurer; Mrs. C. G. Gillet Jr., recording secretary and Mrs. W. J. Cleary, corresponding secretary.

New members from the Birmingham area attending were Mrs. John J. Andrews, Mrs. Patrick Anderson, Mrs. William Hoffman and Mrs. W. J. Flaherty. Appointed to serve as committee chairman for the coming year are Mrs. Francis Anderson and Mrs. Stanley Buckley, both of Birmingham.

George McClellan and Mary Lou O'Reilly rehearsing for "Guys and Dolls", which will be presented by St. Dunstan's on June 2, 3, 9 and 10.

'Guys and Dolls' To be Presented By St. Dunstan's

St. Dunstan's is presenting "Guys and Dolls" as its annual June show in the outdoor Greek Theater at Cranbrook. An outstanding group of St. Dunstan's "Guys and Dolls" with musical talent are in full rehearsal for the show.

Performances are scheduled for June 2, 3, 9 and 10. "Guys and Dolls" was a smash success not only for its great musical but also because the story brings to life a collection of unique Dan Kuyper characters who exist only on Broadway.

The cast of 68 people is directed by Bob Garrison, assisted by Izzy Thompson. The producer is Annelle Smith, with musical direction by Isabel Himelsoch. Dance director is Hala Lawrence with costumes by Nancy Scott, props by Pat Johnson and Peggy Stranier, set design by Bob Ratsch and makeup by Joan Roberts.

Jaycee Luncheon

The Jaycee Auxiliary will have their installation luncheon on June 1 at Fox and Hounds at noon. New officers for the year are Connie Deighna, president; Sally Fisher, vice president; Nancy Hall, secretary; Joy Brooks, treasurer; Bev Hamly, Corresponding secretary; and directors, Jeanne Murray and Jeanne Kayson.
