

Detroit, Hills Man Collide in Accident

BEVERLY HILLS—An 18-year-old Detroit girl suffered a lacerated lip Thursday when she was involved in an automobile accident with a car driven by a Bloomfield Hills man.

Linda Sue Levin was taken to Beaumont Hospital and released to the family physician. Her two companions, Carol Wise, 17, and Sherry Rosa, 19, both of Detroit, were unhurt.

DAVID W. LEIS, 51, of 1180 Parkbrook, Bloomfield Hills, was making a left turn from Southfield onto 14 Mile Road, when the accident occurred.

The girls were driving south on Southfield, police said.

New Hostess Club Officers

BEVERLY HILLS—The Hostess Club of West Beverly met last week to install new officers. Mrs. George Theising, out-going president, is served by Mrs. J. Keith Starnes. The girls were driving south on Southfield, police said.

Principal, President In Exchange Program

BEVERLY HILLS—Most Michigan towns exchange mayors last Monday, but Beverly Hills scooped the state by swapping both presidents and principals. Village president Marvin Cline went to Cadillac, Beverly School principal Malcolm Ferguson to Holland in the twin trade.

Holland School Principal Cornell Norlin plotted what may be Michigan's first school exchange with Beverly's Ferguson way back last September.

Encouraging the annual exchange, Norlin was also welcomed by principals Grant Barber of Quanton, Don Burba of Torry and Bill Corliss, director of elementary curriculum who brought greetings from Dr. Oth Dickey. Absent president Marvin-Cline telegraphed his regards.

Ferguson hoped for free time on his equally busy Holland schedule for a meeting with former villager and PTA proxy, Dr. Harold Fairbanks.

Cadillac Mayor T. Walter Kelly Sr. and his wife arrived Sunday evening along with Mr. and Mrs. R. K. King but they got a night's rest at the Birmingham House before starting the day mapped out by co-chairmen Lee Linsenmeyer and Chet Guilmette.

Village manager Robert Murphy and Councilman Linsenmeyer took the two men on tours. The Dodge Truck plant tour stemmed from Mayor Kelly's dealership in Cadillac. All other tours were in the village with a break for lunch at Kingsley's to join other exchange groups gathered for civic planner Walter Bluncher's talk.

Mrs. Lee Linsenmeyer planned the women's activities to begin with luncheon at Stouffer's followed by a shopping tour of Northland and the Birmingham residence of most of the wives of councilmen and village officials attended the luncheon. Finally, the entire band, excepting Dr. and Mrs. Douglas J. Wood who accompanied the Cline to Cadillac, got together for rockaballs at the Guilmettes on Riverside before going on to Kingsley for dinner.

Councilman and Mrs. Ted Shurtliff were expected back from a Bermuda vacation in time for the dinner. They've been in White Sands since early May where they shared an ocean-front cottage with two other couples. A stop-over in Monticello, N. J. gave the Shurtliffs time for an overnight visit with her brother's family there.

WEST BEVERLY—The Edmond T. Conovers also capped their five-weeks vacation in Virginia, North Carolina and Georgia with a Bermuda cruise. They returned to Bedford less than two weeks ago.

The Alphonse Stachelis of 14 Mile opened their vacation home recently. His father of Santa Rosa, Calif. just ended a two-week visit. June is reserved for Mrs. George Wilhelm of Long Island, N. Y. July and August are booked solid too, we hear.

A luncheon May 8 at Rotunda Inn climaxed the season for West Beverly bowlers. Prize winners for increasing their averages were West Beverly's Mrs. Alphonse Stachelis and Mrs. Harold D'Angelo.

The election that followed the banquet put these West Beverly women in office: president, Mrs. A. R. Fairbanks; vice-president, Mrs. S. F. English; treasurer, Mrs. Robert Curcuk; secretary, Mrs. Pierce Ryan; sergeant-at-arms, Mrs. R. H. Maurer.

The William W. Gilberts play mostly duplicate bridge now with the Don Dittichs of Chelsea and Birmingham friends. Last Friday they set up the boards for three tables on Weston Drive.

VALLEY WOODS—But it's pinocchle on Plumwood Lane when Mrs. Werner Guenther's luncheon hostess as she was May 18. And it's just straight bridge when Mrs. Stuart W. Rodger of Corsault Lane's the hostess. She invited eight to a dessert bridge that same day.

Did you know that Dr. Charles Sawyer landed a 185-lb. marlin in Acapulco where they spent two-thirds of their recent vacation? The Westlady couple also toured Mexico City on their 18-days away.

Dr. and Mrs. John K. Ormond of Martin court took a month to travel to California, but the 8,000 miles they covered explains why their trip was so lengthy and so complete.

Mrs. J. Albert Stephenson Jr. set and broke the Ann Ambrey of Birmingham yesterday with a linen shower and luncheon on Lashar Road. The bride-elect and her mother, Mrs. C. E. Umphrey were honor guests along with the groom's mother, Mrs. Robert Groves of Hampstead.

Mrs. H. W. Dawson, Mrs. J. W. Duhn, Mrs. Buck Sullivan, Mrs. E. J. Connel, Mrs. Willis King and Mrs. Austin Conrad. From Detroit were Mrs. R. K. Blair and Mrs. Baumgardner.

Plan Student Show For PTA Meeting

BEVERLY HILLS—Our Lady of Mercy PTA will have its last session tonight at 7 for a student show. Exhibits made by the students will be on display in the assembly room for viewing at the start of the program. PTA members will then meet in the church social hall for a music program by grade eight pupils and a one-act play by French students.

New PTA proxy, Dr. Harold Holden, will be sworn-in officially at the end of the program.

WNFGA Branch To Install Officers

EAST BEVERLY—Beverly Hills WNFGA members will top off their club year with a luncheon and installation of officers at Pine Lake Country Club June 1.

The ceremonies will see Mrs. Otto Melke of Beverly Road installed for a second term as president. Mrs. William Penney of Beechwood is the new vice-president. Other officers are William Howley of Beverly and recording secretary Mrs. Ralph Thomas of Arlington drive.

ter party at the Community House tomorrow night.

Hostesses will be Mary Ann Breaun, Julie Hiller, Jane Sempowski, Cathy Shelle, Mary Ann Sudz and Colleen Taylor, Jim Chent, Mark DeRosier, Rick Goodrich, Greg Prokop, Ian Reddy and Joe Varley will be the hosts.

June 3 at Hanson's Park in Rochester is set for the annual Beverly-Artistic Club picnic, according to president Richard England.

EAST BEVERLY—Members of the Gourmet Club will meet Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Carl E. Peterson, 10029 Buckingham Road, for a political buffet.

Guests present will be Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Bunnell, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carl, Joseph Miller of Beaumont, Mrs. George Denholm of Grosse Pointe, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gressendorf, Mr. and Mrs. William Jose, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Magel of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. James Roark of Birmingham. The Roarks have just returned from Cleveland, Ohio.

No surprise to neighbors that barbecue expert Mrs. Ray Jacobs of Auburn drive won "Better Homes" May cook-off-the-month award for her fish-kabobs—only to her. She sent her recipe in last September and almost forgot her entry.

The bearded, high-hats gentlemen arrived under the big welcome sign at the Milton Young's of Pierce were the Pontiac part of the "Style Steppers" square dancers meeting there. The whiskers advertise their centrality.

Mrs. B. John Mitchell of Kinross returned from her parent's home in Clearwater, Fla. with their promise to spend July and August here.

The Alton Dismores' recent weekend away from Kirkshire was spent with her mother, Mrs. Lewis Reesh in East Palestine, Ohio.

Too bad Pastor Edward Brown of Rutland was the only man allowed at Pierce Lutheran's mother-daughter banquet. All men would have associated the fashion spoof presented last Friday night.

dozen Our Lady Queen of Martyrs grads-to-be anticipated the event by inviting their classmates to a pizza, punch and platter.

Southfield Orchestra Gives Second Concert

SOUTHFIELD—Under its conductor, Richard Brown, Southfield All-City Orchestra will present its second concert of the season at 8 p.m., May 31, in the Southfield High School auditorium.

Soloist for the concert will be pianist Nancy Wilson, a Birely North High School student. Lathrup, who will play the first movement of the Mendelssohn G Minor Piano Concerto with the orchestra.

Committees Named For July 4 Parade In East Beverly

EAST BEVERLY—New officers elected May 1 by Beverly-Greenfielders look over May 16 to plan the association's annual July 4 parade and picnic. Parade chairman Ray Jacobs announced that floats will be introduced at this year's costume march.

New president G. R. Holzman will chairmen the committee planning the picnic at Dodge Park following the parade. Other officers also serving are L. W. Kell, vice-president; Mrs. John Baldwin, secretary; Mrs. Robert Dising, secretary.

Three new board members were also elected at the annual meeting. They are Horace E. Co., Mrs. Bernard Hicks and William Basse. Beverly-Greenfield board members who will continue are Ray Jacobs, Glen Sharpe, Ed Frank and Harry Mountain.
