Styncroft Champs Receive Trophies

The Birmingham Country Club was the scene of the fall dinner dance of the Styncroft Hills Club membership. Members took time out Saturday evening to bring to a close a most successful season of its first operation as the newest private golf club in this district.

Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Ross Howard and Mr. and Mrs. James Harris, outgoing and incoming presidents. Club champion trophies were awarded to Robert Pruzanski of Derby Road, and Mrs. W. F. Hengel of Manderford Road.

The group was entertained by Dr. and Mrs. Bernard Boech, with various Latin Dance numbers.

short coiffure topped with straight bangs, her Ivy League shirt and tailored skirt.

Her whole family, in fact, is busy. Her husband directs the department of fine arts at Pershing High School, Detroit, and shares his wife's interest in art. Her daughter, Jane, 18, is a Wayne State University freshman. Her interest in weaving has filled a major portion of the Suddall dining area with a huge loom.

SONS JOHN, 15, and Jimmy, 11, complete the Suddall circle. When he isn't being a housewife or an artist, Mrs. Suddall teaches at Bloomfield Country Day School and at Mercy College, Detroit.

She's active, too, in the Birmingham Society of Women Painters and other art groups. She keeps on winning awards and honors with her paintbrush and selling her work through the Detroit Artists' Market.
