

Education Group In Southfield Plans Teachers' Workshop

State educators will be the featured speakers at the annual Workshop Day Nov. 10.

Main speaker of the day will be Dr. Warren Ketchum, of the University of Michigan's College of Education. Speaking to special groups will be Dr. Marguerite Hood, also from the U of M, and Dr. William Forbes, science consultant for the Birmingham Board of Education. Dr. Hood will address music and instrumental and vocal teachers, while Dr. Forbes will speak to science teachers.

The workshop day is being planned and coordinated by chairman Ruth Jones, of Lederle Jr. High. Also assisting are Helen McIntyre and Del Artz, elementary coordinators; Irene Gutman, East Southfield; Don Lindow, Lathrup; Alba Tolind, Southfield 10; and David Moscov, Southfield High.

Southfield Schedules Annual Paper Drive

Southfield High seniors will have some added paper work on Saturday as the class holds its annual paper drive.

The seniors will canvass the Southfield and Lathrup areas seeking waste paper and magazines. Proceeds will go toward senior expenses, class president Tom Van Meer said.

Optimists to See World Trip Films

SOUTHFIELD—A retired General Motors Official, Fred Limback, will show films of his round-the-world trip at the meeting of the Southfield Optimists Tuesday at 9:30 at Howard Johnson Restaurant, 10 Mile and Northwestern Highway.

Limback will stress the parts of his films showing the Middle East and Africa. He returned from his trip in September, 1950.

Safety-Minded Pupils Welcome 'Singing Cop'

THE BEVERLYS — Our Lady Queen of Martyrs won the green pennant for absence of accidents within a given period of time. The green pennant program is sponsored by a Detroit Newspaper.

The pennant was presented Monday to captain of the Safety Patrol, Jim Smith and Safety Lieutenant, Gary Talson, by Michigan State Trooper Larry Miller from the Pontiac post. Also there was Lt. Wilburn LeGree, nationally known as the "singing cop," from the Flint Police Dept.

The pennant will be flown over the school with the American flag. After the ceremonies outside, the children gave a program, headed by Sister Miriam Clare, principal of the school.

Enjoying the Halloween fun last week-end were two couples from Amherst, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Mangrum and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fehr. They attended the Glen Oaks Country Club, where their Dance Club held a Halloween party.

Dressed as Goldilocks and the Three Bears, they had cocktails at the Mangrum home before starting for the club.

Recently Mary Dorough of Beaconsfield had a slumber party for a group of Kate Gimma's closest friends as a going-away-party for Kate. She and her family have moved from Beverly Road to Richmond, Ind.
