SECTION
D

You may ask: "Why does mankind fail to respect those ideas and plans for the solution of many problems when similar ideas and plans have not solved those problems previous generations?" George Senayman, poet-philosopher, thought of this when he wrote: "Those who refuse to learn from history are condemned to repeat it. History records how other nations, trying socialism, failed. Shall we repeat?"

Series of Re-Unions Spark Eastern Trip

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Reid Jr. of Clifton Road have returned recently from the 8th reunion of the Harvard Law School. After the reunion they continued on to Philadelphia and New York for a visit with their two sons and their families. In Washington they visited with their daughter and family and made a short stop in Hampton, Va., to see old friends.

Before returning home they visited with a former Wesleyan classmate of Mrs. Reid's, Mrs. Roger M. Bury, and her husband of Westport, Conn.

Recently returning from their annual trip to New York for the opening of the Metropolitan Opera are Mr. and Mrs. David Smucker of Sandringham Way. In enjoying "The Girl From the Golden West," they saw the comedy, "Mary, Mary."

The Willard Holt home on Overhill Road has been a busy place recently. Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Gilliam of Marryville, Mo., Mrs. Elizabeth Snavley of Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Donald Davidson of Hancock, N. Y., came to Birmingham for a reunion with the hosts and other friends who had gone on a tour around the world three years ago.

During their stay they visited local points of interest such as Greenfield Village, the Ford Museum and Cranbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. Holt entertained at a dinner party which also included Mr. and Mrs. Grover Scott of Windsor, Blanche Covey, Mary De-Young and Mr. A. F. Harrell of Detroit, and the Holt's daughter and son-in-law, the Wesley family as well as of Farmington. Most of the guests had been in Europe and Africa since their last get-together and had many films to view and experiences to relate.

Dr. and Mrs. James A. Barron of Amberly Road gave a dinner party last Thursday evening in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Jorge La-Calle of Barcelona, Spain, and Dr. and Mrs. Lyle Motley of Memphis, Tenn.

The guests were Dr. and Mrs. Robin Buerki of Grosse Pointe, Dr. and Mrs. Laurence Falls and Dr. and Mrs. Jean Pratt, both of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Briggs and Dr. and Mrs. Fred Henry of Bloomfield Village.

Dr. and Mrs. LaCalle and Dr. and Mrs. Motley are in Detroit area to attend the Ford Hospital reunion that is held every five years.

GILBERT LAKE—Last Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. William Berridge Jr. of Blanford Road entertained 18 for dinner. Guests of the pot luck-bridge group were Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Mayhew, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Vories, Mrs. Betty Humphrey, Mr. William Merrifield and Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Schulte all of Detroit.

The Frederick Ziezels and the Otto Schuberts came from Frankfort, the Robert Swifas from Brookcreek and the Kenneth Berridges from Birmingham.

FOX CROFT—Mrs. Raymond Darling of Woodland Pass gave an informal coffee last Sunday for the Woman's Auxiliary of the Hammond Organ Group. Guests were from the Farmington, Detroit and Birmingham area.

Dr. and Mrs. D. M. Campbell and their children, Vicki, 10, and Scotty, 2, returned last week from a three-week vacation in Saskatchewan, Saskatchewan. This is an annual trip for the Campbell family. During their visit with Dr. Campbell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Colin Campbell, the doctor and his father and brother traveled 300 miles north for a hunting trip.

LONE PINE HILLS—Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hangstefer are back home on Lone Pine Road after 10 glorious days at Copacabana Beach in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. One of the most exciting parts of the trip was the 3 1/2 hour night over solid jungle from Trinidad to Rio.

Members of the Lone Pine Garden Club, Mrs. John Willing, Mrs. Dugald Black and Mrs. C. S. Barmes, all of Maple Drive, will attend a garden club meeting on Saturday at Michigan State University, Rochester. The topic discussed will be "organization and Leadership."

Ted is a photographer on the Bloomfield Hills High School year

St. Anthony's Shrine Scene of Ceremony

Dorothy Wetzel and Stephen Marquis were united in marriage Oct. 21 at St. Anthony's Shrine in Southfield. The Rev. Thomas M. Sauter performed the 11 o'clock ceremony in the presence of 150 guests.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wetzel of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Marquis of Meadowood Court, Lathrup Village.

MRS. STEPHEN MARQUIS

THE BRIDE was gowned in bouquet taffeta featuring a bell-shaped skirt and chapel train. A crown of pearls and crystals secured her silk illusion veil. She carried a single white orchid entwined with stephanotis and trailing ivy.

Matron of honor was Mrs. James Travers. Bridesmaid was Doris Beusterien and Junior bridesmaid was Linda Travers. They were gowned in turquoise chantilly lace designed with three quarter inch sleeves and full skirt. They carried ivory mums.

DENNIS MARQUIS stood as best man and seating the guests was Donald Brown and ring bearer was Robert Marquis.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Wetzel chose a Dior blue silk shantung dress. Mother of the bridegroom selected a beige satin gown.

ADMISSIONS DIRECTOR TO VISIT BIRMINGHAM

Mrs. Esther DeMerritt, assistant director of admissions at Lake Forest College, will visit six Birmingham area schools Wednesday and next Thursday to talk with students interested in learning more about the Midwest liberal arts college.

On Nov. 14 she will visit Wylie Grove High School at 9 a.m., Seaholm High School at 10:30 a.m. and Detroit Country Day School at 9:30 a.m.; Kingswood High School at 11:30 a.m. and Cranbrook School at 2 p.m.

FOUNDERS DAY DINNER

Birmingham alumnae of Gamma Phi Beta Sorority will host their Founders' Day dinner 6:30 p.m. Tuesday at Devon Gables. Speaker will be Mrs. G. Howard Marlar of Detroit, an alumna of Gamma Phi Beta, of Detroit. Mrs. Marlar is a recoster. Mrs. Jerry Johnson, 1322 Hickory, Royal Oak, is in charge of the annual event and may be contacted by alumnae who wish to make reservations.
