

B'ham Village Players To Present 'Patterns'

"Patterns," adapted by James Reach from Rod Serling's television show, will be presented 8 p.m. Nov. 17, 18, 24 and 25 at the Chestnut-Street Playhouse by Birmingham Village Players. Friday evening will be the first time that "Patterns" has been offered to playgoers in the greater Detroit area.

THE PLAY has a story with a big-business background and reveals how top-flight executives are sometimes hired and fired.

The play has been directed by Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kegel and produced by Eric Holmgren with the following cast: Mrs. Edson

Pool, Mrs. Harold Schneider, John Reilly, Arthur Greiner, Mrs. Keith Jenkins, Charles McKaig, Mrs. Robert Wyatt, Robert Miller.

LAWTON Tabor, Dr. Dale Drew, Mrs. Robert Miller, Mrs. Richard Netter and young Richard Wyatt, son of the Robert Wyatts, who will make his first appearance in an adult show with Village Players. Richard is 14.

A large technical staff, made up of members of Village Players, will handle all of the production details. Set design is by Mary Hammond. Tickets are available at Grinnell.

BARBARA KLEMM

To Become Bride Of M. R. Davis

Mr. and Mrs. Herman G. Klemm of Bristol Lane, Bingham Farms, announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Elise, to Morgan Richard Davis, son of Mrs. Ray E. Davis of Huntington Woods, and the late Mr. Davis.

Miss Klemm is a graduate of Goucher College, Towson, Md., and Katherine Gibbs Business School, New York City.

Her fiancé is a graduate of the University of Michigan. He served in the United States Air Force for three years as a First Lieutenant.

President John A. Hannah of Michigan State University was one of nine government and high education leaders recognized by the American Council on Education for contributions to the success of the College Housing Loan Program, under which dormitories for about 10 percent of the U. S. campus population have been financed.

Parents Announce Daughter's Troth

Mr. and Mrs. John McKelvey Senior of Tilbury Road, Bloomfield Village, announce the engagement of their daughter, Janet Caryl, to Athanasios Nicholas Tsergas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Tsergas of New Ionia, Athens, Greece.

Her fiancé is an electronics engineer and will continue his education for a master's degree in electrical engineering next spring at the Illinois Institute of Technology. The wedding date has been set for Dec. 30 in the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham.
